Remembrance Day parades Sunday

Remembrance Day parades will be held in three different locations in Halton Hills Sunday Nov. 6.

The Glen Williams parade starts at 12 noon while the Georgetown parade begins at 2 p.m.

All those participating in the Georgetown parade should be at the Legion Branch 120 by 1:30 p.m.

The Acton Legion, Branch 197 will be holding their Remembrance Day parade in Acton starting at the post office at 10:45 a.m. Services at the cenotaph begin at 10:45 a.m.

HALLOWEEN HAUNTS

There was a pre-Halloween haunting at Acton's Knox Presbyterian Church last Friday. A group of youngsters with the recreation departments pre-school play shop gathered for a costume party in the church basement with instructors Joan Atherton and Barb Robinson.

Less time to speak

New regulations endorsed by the town's general committee Monday night say that a member, speaking to council or committee, has only five minutes to make his point. Town staff suggested the time limitation remain at 10 minutes, but Coun. Miller argued...and a majority of his colleagues agreed...that even that limitation would lead to lengthy debates if all members speak to the same issue.
