UNICEF
cards, gifts

To the editor of The Herald:
As Honorary Chairperson of the Ontario UNICEF fundraising campaign for 1983, I am writing to let your readers know that UNICEF's holiday greeting cards and gifts are now available.
UNICEF volunteers are working hard across the Province to raise funds for children in developing countries through the sale of UNICEF's extensive range of stationery products - which make ideal Christmas gifts!

The 1983 UNICEF Collection includes greeting cards, diary calendars, personalized stationery, giftwrap and gift enclosures, and a variety of packaged stationery for all occasions. The colour brochure illustrating these items is available now and may be obtained at no cost by calling toll free: 1-800-268-6362, Operator 508.
Sincerely yours,
Andrea Martin (SCTV),
Honorary Chairperson,
Unicef Ontario Fundraising Campaign 1983

Endorses decision

Last month regional council denied an application by the Croation Centre south of Norval to draw municipal water from neighboring Peel region. On Monday, town council endorsed the region's decision, noting that the town hasn't approved a long term plan for the property and that servicing the land with municipal water would require an amendment to the region's official plan.

New townhouses?

Relisco Holdings Ltd. has submitted a draft plan of subdivision to the town for a housing development in Georgetown's west end. The 10.6-hectare (26-acre) site is located west of Hyland Drive in the Moore Park subdivision and abuts the Georgetown urban boundary. The draft subdivision plan calls for 106 single family homes.
