Cubs hold craft sale

The annual craft workshop for first year Cubs in North Halton District was held in the Acton Scout Hall last Saturday.

Cubs attended from Acton, Georgetown, Glen Williams and Limehouse.

Registration started at 9:30 and the Cubs were divided up into groups for the various crafts.

Mrs. Elaine Hannah and Evelyn Owen of the service team co-ordinated this event.

Mrs. Hannah outlined the rules for the first craft consisting of a Golden King. Mrs. Owen explained the mouse woggle. Jean Layman explained the rules for the two Christmas crafts and Peter Frommel outlined the rules for the wooden plaque.

Mail carefully

Herald Special
With a large volume of Christmas parcels expected to be sent through the mail again this year, Canada Post is advising its customers proper packaging and addressing will ensure on-time, safe delivery.

Fragile articles should be packed in rigid boxes and protected on all sides with cushioning material such as crushed newspaper, tissue paper or corrugated cardboard. Boxes should also be sealed firmly and all seams covered with strong packaging tape. Other items which could be damaged if bent in transit should carry the words "Do not bend" written in block letters above the address.

Parcels may be insured against possible loss or damage. Postal rates vary depending on the destination, weight and speed of service required by the sender. Specific details may be obtained at all post offices.

The rate for cards and first class letters within Canada is 32 cents, 37 cents to the United States and its territories and 64 cents for international destinations other than the U.S.
