

RELAXING TO THE LIMIT

Breathing and stretching exercises of the hathayoga technique help to relax the whole body. Stretching to teacher Rita Parker's coaxing Wednesday were (left) Sherri Lawson of Terra Cotta and Jacquie Watson of Georgetown. The classes are held in the basement of the Sacre Coeur church in Georgetown. Mrs. Parker will be starting new classes in January. For more information call 877-4644. The classes are held Wednesday mornings from 8:45 to 11:15 a.m. (Herald photo)

CHARITY JAZZ

The gold was shining on the John Elliott Theatre stage Thursday night, and the wealth of it all was vibrating in the ears of the 180 people there. The Louisiana Jazz Makers blew some of their best tunes in a benefit concert sponsored by the Georgetown Optimist Club. A second concert was held Saturday night featuring Phil Sykes and Melody. Optimist Jim Broughton said about $300 was raised toward the Georgetown District High School elevator fund. The fund now stands at $18,000. (Herald photo)

Halton computer club

Does the world of computers fascinate, amaze and intrigue you? Then you should be talking to Colin Davenport, president of the Halton and Peel Computer Club.

Formed five years ago by a group of computer enthusiasts, the club members get together every third Wednesday of the month at Georgetown District High School.

Their first meeting of the year was held Sept. 21. Thirty members meet from 7:30 to 9 p.m. in Room 144 of the high school.

For all ages, the club's youngest member is 14 and the oldest is 75.

Members exchange software or programs they have written, and work together on hardware, or building additions to computers.

Mr. Davenport, president of the club since this April, said the club has an electronic bulletin board for Georgetown.

He explained it's a number you can dial with your computer to leave messages or electronic mail for people anywhere in the world. The calls are made with a telephone handset that connects with the computer.

For more information about the club, contact Mr. Davenport at 877-4960.
