Pantomime players present 'Aladdin'

LEGION LINES

By LLOYD HOUNSELL
Herald Special

The Early Bird registrations for next year are slowly growing but have a long way to go to reach even 75 per cent and the time is getting short, so come along and let's try and break previous records.

The Childrens Christmas Party will be Dec. 15. New members should make certain that their childrens names are added to the list on the notice board, maximum age 10 years. No grandchildren please.

GENERAL MEETING

Nov. 24, at 8 p.m. Lets have a really good turnout and be in on all the important decisions.

LADIES AUXILIARY

At our last General Meeting of Dec. 17 we had a much better turnout, however, there are still a lot of our Comrades missing and we would like to see you here as we need your support. Please plan to attend our next General Meeting Dec. 8, at 7 p.m. We shall have a brief meeting, after which we will have our Christmas Pot Luck Party and are looking forward to having a good attendance for this event.

We have had an exciting weekend, our Annual Christmas Bazaar was Saturday and after our Branch President, Norm Ward declared it open, we were deluged with people, it was an excellent Bazaar with Santa Claus dropping in to pay us a visit and of course have his picture taken with the children.

A very special thanks to Marian Carney and all her helpers for an excellent job well done. Thanks also to Bob McNeilly for taking the pictures. Following the Bazaar in the evening a dance was held, again with Marian Carney, with Jessie Hayes and their helpers putting on a great evening was a "Hat Dance" and a great many came with some very original hats. The winners of the best Hat went to Katie Abbot, the door prize was won by Jim Bishop. Everyone had a super time. On Sunday, November 13, a very successful Zone Rally was hosted by Georgetown Ladies Auxiliary.

Of our four teams that went to Fonthill on Saturday for District Cribbage, I am very pleased to say two will be going to Provincial at Perth in June. Congratulations to Hazel Dumper, Ann Nicholson, Monica Southon, and Gretta Stoddart, also Rita Rudiger, Ruby Bailey, Rae McCasland and Leona Postlewaite.

DATES TO REMEMBER

Zone Euchre at Bramalea on Saturday, November 26th, Zone Bowling in Brampton on Saturday December 3rd.

Appearing elsewhere in the paper is a list of winners for the Penny Sale, and the Raffle which were held at the Bazaar.

HO HO HO!

If you've wondered where Santa Claus has been hiding, the Georgetown Jaycees can tell you. Santa was at their dinner meeting Wednesday advertising the fact that the service club is again renting his suits out to helping elves. Here Jaycee president Sharon Phyk shares a few words with Santa and perhaps a Christmas wish. Santa suit rentals are available now by phoning Sharon Sullivan at 877-9602.

Rev. Campbell speaks on Caribbean

By WINIFRED SMITH

There was a good number of adults out to church Sunday and a good attendance of the young folk at Sunday School classes.

The men's choir added much to the service as did the message by the guest speaker, Rev. Campbell who spent many years of service in the West Indies.

He gave his first hand knowledge of the poverty that exists there. It proved to be an interesting sermon.

Dr. Bandy announced that the Church Service in Ballinad would be cancelled this coming Sunday in order that the people might share in a Anniversary Service at St. Andrews United Church in Georgetown. The service there is at 10 a.m.

The beautiful flowers which graced the front of the Church Sunday were placed there by #### Mrs. Dimonte and Usula Eckert.

It was a special Birthday celebration for Helen Schwarz on Friday night of last week. There were 16 guests present at her home to help her celebrate the happy occasion of reaching her 21st birthday.

Congratulations to Lil Gwen who won two tickets last week.

Her name was picked as the winner from C.J.O.Y. Radio Station. Her and her daughter Laurie will be attending the opening night of "The Sound of Music" later on this week in Guelph, at Rock Hall.

The U.C.W. held their Nov. meeting in the Church Basement last Tues. evening Nov. 15th with 14 members present. The devotion was given by Barbara Munro. It was on forgiveness.

Norval

Induction ceremony

By KAY WILSON
Interim moderator of Norval and Union Presbyterian Churches, Rev. Graeme Duncan of Brampton, conducted the service of induction Sunday evening for Rev. Angus Sutherland, the new minister for both Norval and Union churches.

Organist Gerry Murphy directed the combined choirs in the anthems "Canticle of Praise" and "To show by touch and word".

The sermon was delivered by Dr. Donald Smith of Toronto's Knox College. Georgetown's Rev. Peter Barrow, clerk of presbytery and Milton's Rev. T.J. Lewis, moderator of presbytery, assisted in the induction service. Streetsville's Rev. L. Sutherland presented the charge and congregations to the new minister.

The congregations warmly welcomed Rev. and Mrs. Sutherland and their three children Shona, Bonnie and Struan at the fellowship hour following the service.

Rev. Walter Ridley conducted the sacrament of baptism Nov. 13 at Huttonville United Church. Babies baptised were: James Daniel, son of Betsy and Jim Collins; Mackenzie Ryan, son of Debbie and Dan Callaghan; Kenneth Bradley, son of Heather and Brad Fraser; Nicholas Arthur, son of Kim and Doug Fraser; Jennifer Lee, daughter of Patsy and Danny Salen; and Christina Marie, daughter of Karen and Scott Watson.

Huttonville Good Neighbors sponsored a euchre party Friday at Huttonville School. Prize winners were: Mrs. Isabel Fraser, Mrs. Pat Murray, Mr. Jake Rohrer, Mr. Dick Brown; carting prize, Lorna Ashmore and Sho Teramoto. The next euchre will be held Jan. 20.

Pinegrove Community Club met at the home of Irene Hunter Nov. 14. Keith Webb chaired the meeting and guest speaker Susanne Ptolomy of Milton, a region of Halton employee, told of the various ministry of environment studies for the dump area. A question and answer period followed. Lunch was served following a game of euchre.

Norval Community Euchre had eight tables in play Thursday night. Winners were: Lillian Shapely, Vivian Shaw, Kay Wilson and Jamie Cunningham; Ione hands, Em McGilvray; lucky draw, Kay McMillan; lunch committee, Elsie Jarvis, Marlene and Jamie Cunningham.

The Couples Club will conduct the morning service at Norval United Church Sunday.

part of the meeting was over the Girl Guides sang a few numbers. Helen Schwarz was also present and told of some of her experiences in camp this year.

at the home to help daughter Sheila celebrate her birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse McEnery spent the weekend in Tara visiting with their family.

The 4-H Homemaking girls have had their final 7th meeting at the home of their leader Mrs. Schwarz. Achievement Day is to be Nov. 30th.
