

Norval

Couples Club lead service

By KAY WILSON
Herald Correspondent
The Norval United Church Couples Club had charge of the morning service Sunday. Bill Laidlaw gave the welcome and Sunday School student Allen Savage lit the Advent candle.

Dad Warren Savage gave the children's story, and the hymn "When Mothers of Salem" was sung before the little ones went off to class.

Scriptures and thoughts were given by three couples: Marilyn and George Smith, "The Light of the World"; John and Jean Dunlop, "The Church as the Family of God"; and Jack and Mary Crawford, "Living as Peacemakers".

The trio of Brenda Kistner, Marg and Paul Tamblin provided special music, including the number "Everyone wants to go to Heaven, but no one wants to die".

Pastoral and offering prayers were given by Gwen and Rosie Laidlaw, and the offering taken by Jean Reid and Glen Laidlaw.

Pinegrove Community Club had five tables of euchre Nov. 21. Winners were Gertrude McGee, Ruth Hyatt, John Hunter and Vera Thatcher. Grace May and Vera Thatcher made up the lunch committee.
