

Hollywood Tavern wins 7-4

Pro Sports upset

The Hollywood Tavern counted four unanswered goals in the third period to upset league-leading M and M Pro Sports, 7-4, in Georgetown Industrial Hockey League action Sunday at Gordon Alcott Arena.

Ian Syme, with the first of an eventual hat-trick, and Brian Beaumont, counted in the first period for the Norval crew, but Gary Halls and Steve Venka countered for the Sports.

After Bruce MacPhail gave the Taverners a 3-2 advantage at the 3:14 mark of the middle frame, Halls and Chuck Williams came-back to give the Pro Sports a 4-3 lead heading into the final frame.

Syme connected from

Beaumont and Larry Peterson just 44 seconds into the third period to knot the score at 4-4, and the Hollywood crew never looked back.

Beaumont counted the winner midway through the session on an unassisted effort. George Osborne counted from Peterson and Mark Snow to provide some insurance, before Syme hit for his third into an empty Pro Sport net.

In other action, Doug Barnes fired five goals and added an assist as the red-hot Riviera Raiders crushed Acton Sitting Bull Tavern Knights, 11-1.

Terry Turner contributed a hat-trick to the victory, and he also helped out once, John Barnes, Pat Tunney and Marty Weaven all connected for single markers.

Weaven also racked up three assists on the day, while Tunney had a pair of helpers.

Earl Sheppard scored for Acton to ruin Raider goaltender Howie Hulme's shutout with less than three minutes to play.

There will be no league action over the next two weeks, honoring Christmas and the New Year. League play will resume Sunday, January 8, when Pro Sports meet Acton at 8:30 a.m. The second game pits the Hollywood Tavern against the Riviera Raiders.

GFSC holds in-club meet figure skaters compete

By PAM DOUGLAS
Herald special

The Georgetown Figure Skating Club held a preliminary competition Wednesday night to determine which skaters will represent the club at the inter-club (county-wide) competition they will host in February.

Almost 60 skaters competed in various divisions Wednesday and about 25 will meet the best of clubs from places like Acton, Oakville and Milton.

"We had a good showing in the categories (Wednesday night)", said Georgetown Club spokesperson Pauline Miller.

Catherine Tutt took first place in the pre-juvenile skate while Susan Lamb and Nicole Remedios placed second and third, respectively.

Susan Giray (First), Kelly Colton (second), and Paula Hagen (third) skated in the juvenile category.

In pre-novice Trina Wasylenko finished first Jennifer Snyder was second, and Dayna Cammick was third.

Tammy Morrow took first in novice, while intermediate Carolyn Caruso placed first in her division and Kim Patcheson placed second.

In the senior Bronze Solo Dance Kara Lynn Palmer was first, Jane Campbell was second and in third place was Heather Garrison.

Jennifer Henwood won the Junior Silver Solo Dance category, Jennifer Hoddinot won the Senior Silver Solo Dance, and Leah Smeaton was first in the Gold Solo Dance.

Competitors in the interpretive events were told what the theme of the music for their event would be, but they did not hear the actual music until the night of the competition.

The theme for the ladies' interpretive skate was "The South Seas". Tammy Morrow came first while Jennifer Hoddinot was second and Trina Wasylenko was third.

Johnathon Allen won the mens' interpretive, which had a Mexican theme.

Last year the Georgetown Club missed winning the Inter-County competition by one point.

Pauline Miller is hopeful that the club will do well at this year's competition, which will be hosted by Georgetown.

"We've got some good senior skaters representing the club," she said.

The winner of the Inter-county meet will go on to face other clubs in a central Ontario competition in Port Credit next March.

Juvies win a pair protest 7-5 loss

The Georgetown Shaw Trophies-DRG juveniles won two more Tri-county hockey games this week, before dropping a 7-5 decision to Streetsville in a protest game.

The local juvies opened the week with an easy 9-2 romp Monday night in Ancaster. Georgetown jumped out to a 3-0 lead in the opening session, split four goals to lead 5-2 after two periods, then salted the game away with four unanswered third-period markers.

Eric Clark spearheaded the offence for Georgetown with four goals and an assist. Brian Stone, Hank Hamilton, Howie Oram, Glen Baker and Mark Webster all found the range once for the winners.

Thursday night at Gordon Alcott Arena, the locals squashed Dundas, 8-3.

Baker counted the first two of an eventual hat-trick as Georgetown jumped out to a 4-2 first-period advantage. Clark assisted on both goals.

Baker than drew assists on a pair of goals by Howie Oram, as the locals put the game away. George Osborne, Derek Roy and Danny Curtis all fired singles for Georgetown.

Thursday night the juvies host Milton for a 9 p.m. encounter at Gordon Alcott Arena. Next week, they will compete in a tournament in Orangeville.

Video atoms turn out light on Burlington

The Georgetown H and H Video minor atoms met with Burlington Sunday night in an exciting and fast paced game, with Georgetown taking it 5-3.

ed the play in the second period. Tommy Diardichuk put one in with assists going to Peter Cambouris and Andrew Elliott. Jeff Dickey got number four assisted by Gord Buchan and Troy Gardner.

Just a few minutes into the third period and Georgetown did it again. This time Jeff Wright scored unassisted. Burlington then made a comeback with two more goals, but it wasn't enough.

The whole Georgetown team deserves credit for a well played game.

First period play put Georgetown on the board first with a goal by Jeff Wright assisted by Steve Wright and Steven Smith. Burlington chalked one up and then Georgetown came right back with a goal by Peter Cambouris assisted by Jake Mashinter and Andrew Elliott.

Georgetown control-

Teams squashed

Both the Georgetown Squash Club men and ladies ran into tough competition this week.

The local ladies lost 0-4 at Bridlewood Club in Agincourt, while the men's team went down, 1-4, at the Regency Racquet Club in Bramalea.

Wendy Cotton, Gloria Sinclair and Jan Cook all lost their matches, 0-3, while Pat Harris was edged, 2-3.

Murray Jans became the first visiting man to win a match at Regency Racquet Club this year, when he took an easy 3-0 decision from his opponent. Ken Thorn went down 0-3, Graham Smith lost 1-3, and Rob Allison and John McNally both dropped tough 2-3 counts.
