

ZEKE'S GOT A BEEF

Lisa Allen, star center of the senior girls' hockey team, helped Bob 'Zeke' McCandless, president of the Georgetown Gemini Jr. 'B' hockey club, pick the lucky winner of the annual Beef-O-Rama draw. The draw took place Friday at the Herald office. More than 1,300 tickets were sold for $1 apiece, raising more than $800 for the hockey club. Lisa drew the ticket held by Mr. Ivan MacLeod, of RR1 Acton. He wins a side of beef.

Winless in four starts

Bantams slumping

By GARY LANE
Herald correspondent
Georgetown's Chateau minor bantams are currently attempting to end a four game slump.

Jason Arnold notched two of the Georgetown markers while Donnie Cruise added the other. Assists went to Dave Harris, Ken Langdon and Alain Thibault.

Harris and Jeff Brady setting up Danny Lane's goal for the only Georgetown scoring. With a lot of hard work Arnold from Langdon and Davin Cigen cut the lead to 3-2 with seven minutes remaining.

Pro Sports hit top form

The Georgetown M and M Pro Sports major bantams went to the Bramalea Silver Stick Hockey Tournament over the Christmas break, and came up with their best hockey of the season. They made it to the finals, where they lost to the Mississauga Braves.

Cooper was back at it in the next outing, a 3-2 victory over Scarborough that sent Georgetown into the finals. Cooper connected for the winner in overtime, finishing off a strong effort by Pro Sport goalie Joe Balsom. Finn and Jim Manning scored the other Georgetown goals.

Arnold and Lane came back to set up a goal by Harris with fifty-six seconds left in the match but our boys couldn't hold on and poor clearing in their own zone led to the winner by Niagara Falls only 20 seconds after the Harris goal.

Standard peewees tie after two defeats

By RON NEEDHAM
Herald correspondent
The Georgetown Standard Product minor peewee 'A' team dropped a 6-1 decision to the Burlington 'AA' team in recent tri-county action.

Ron Desrosiers played an excellent game in goal handling numerous opposition scoring chances.

Cooper and Chris Bechard drawing assists. In the second period Georgetown put on an excellent display of penalty killing only to have Burlington tie the game with three seconds left in the period. The third period saw end-to-end action with neither team able to count the winner.

Sports Campers in consolation finals

By Boyd Hoddinott
Herald correspondent
The Georgetown North Halton Sports Camp peewees competed in the Coca-Cola International tournament at Richmond Hill over the holidays. The Peewees warmed up with Tri-County victories over Milton and Flamboro.

so took only half as many minutes as Whitby. The Sports Campers received a couple gift goals to tie the score. Georgetown then ran out the score for a 6-2 win as Doug Kent notched the hat trick. Singles went to Bill Tutt, Cam Herman and Travis Gardner.

Georgetown. Doug Kent continued his opportunistic play as he counted four goals, three on rebounds Bill Tutt scored while Andrew Hoddinott and Brent Presswood added singles.

ario "AAA" champions 1982-83 and went on to cop this tournament without a loss. Georgetown went on into the consolation round and defeated Mississauga Braves 2-1 on goals by Bill Tutt and Alan Gray.

Newmarket players superior conditioning enabled them to skate away from our boys for a 3-0 victory. Georgetown played excellent hockey in this tournament and lost to two all-Ontario champions. As long as we face the weak competition in Tri County it is going to be difficult to play up to these top squads but we hope that two tough tournaments can lift our play.

Candy kids take second

By RITA DAVIDSON
Herald correspondent
The Georgetown Candy Products major peewees looked impressive in finishing second at the Orillia hockey tournament over the Christmas break.

After Wilson opened the scoring for Georgetown, from Sproules and Brian Leslie, Huntsville came back with a pair of goals to take the lead.

With their Star 3 badges now are swimmers Amy Cooper, Adrian Pusiak, David Mann, Martin Davison and Emily Tabuchi.
