Two Ashgrove ladies turn 92 this month

By Mrs. JOHN BELLBODDY Herald Correspondent

877-3193 Quite a lot of our folks have birthdays in this first month of 1984. We are apt to forget some, but we do want to mention Mrs. Arthur Ruddell on Jan. 19 and

Mrs. Cora Wriggles-

worth Jan 23. Both ladies will be 91. Visitors bome for Christmas were Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Zoppa and two sons from Port Coquitlam, B.C. with her parents Mr. and Mrs. T. Blackett, Dr. Adrienne Peacock from Vancouver with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nurse, Jutta and Barbara Treviranus of Toronto with their parents, Lois McNaff from Victoria B.C.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Brownridge, Barbara Ervine, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Brownridge, Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey Nurse, Mr. and Mrs. George Bird, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson were guests at the wedding of Wm. Kerr Jr. and his bride Janice Lezely at St. Joseph's church in Powassan, Dec. 30.

We were sorry to learn that Mr. William Allison of the Eighth Line had to spend Christmas in Wellesley hospital following an operation. He is home now recovering and we hope will have better health after this.

It was announced the annual meeting would be held at the church next Sunday Jan. 15 after lunch. The congregation are asked to bring lunch.

Have a social time during the lunch hour and participate in the annual meeting and hear the plans for 1984. Wed. Jan. 18, at 8 p.m., the Ballinafad W.I. will be sponsoring a seminar on money management involving sheltering plans to cut your income tax. There will be a question and answering period.

This will be an oppor-tunity to obtain professional advice from an experienced money manager. It will be held at the community centre. All are welcome. We are gled to hear Mrs. Pat Loughlan was able to leave hospital and return to her home. She is now recovering quite well from her serious illness.

Linda O'Connor and daughters, Amie and Karen, also Ruth Burt and her mother attended the open house at Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Burts on Wed. eve of last week.

The occasion was for the opportunity for friends and relatives to meet their son Douglas, his wife and children who have been on vacation. They left for their home in Calgary Fri

There were over 40 present who enjoyed the buffet supper served and the social time.

The producer, Etta Mills, is responsible for bringing the show in on budget and the group must sell 70 per cent of tickets to break even.

The biggest cost is to pay the music companies in New York for royalties. "New Glrl" for instance costs $3,000 which is less than other musicals such as Fiduer on the Roof or South Pacific.

Some shows, like Evita, are not available to amateur groups for several years which is why you seldom see recent shows being produced.
