Local rinks make finals

Two North Halton teams out of the thirteen competing made it to the finals of the Halton-Peel bonspiel on Saturday, at Acton Curling Club. Les Ashcroft and team Andy DiSebastiano, Bill Blight and Brian Stewart finished in fourth spot in the D-event.

Warren Micklethwaite skipped his team of Rollie Bradley, Bob Doyle and Ken Tazman to the final game where they met defeat and finished runner up in the 'A' event. This was their only loss after winning their first six games. Congratulations to both teams.

The Business Women's Tankard was held at Chinguacousy this weekend, which is a double team competition. Representing North Halton were the teams of Peggy Darmody and Karin Henderson. They won their first game and lost their second to miss out on the finals on Sunday.

The final playdown game for the Five Star Mixed was played on Friday evening and for the third year in a row, Steve and Shirley McDermot and George and Joan Shapcott will represent North Halton at the Zone playdowns this weekend at Milton.

They will be trying to match last year's record of winning the Zone and Inter-Zone and competing in the provincial finals.

Our ladies were bonspieling at Brampton last week in their annual Rose Bowl. Alice Frazer, Theresa Smith, Doris DuHuck and Bev Eastwood were runners-up in the second event, and Peggy Darmody, Mary Black, Dot Hamilton and Ann Hartford won the fifth event. Congratulations girls.

It would be nice to see some familiar faces behind the glass, so how about some home town support at Milton this weekend for our Mixed team.

Midgets tie

With just two games left to go in the Tri-County Hockey schedule, third place Georgetown's minor midgets still have a chance to accomplish two of the three things they haven't been able to do: beat Burlington and beat Chinguacousy.

The third objective of beating lowly Oakville was left unaccomplished when they allowed Oakville the tying goal last Thursday night.

Brian Doherty had opened the scoring at 5:02 of the first period.

Majors miss final

The Georgetown Sunny Acres major midget hockey team has returned from a successful Sarnia Silver Stick Tournament.

The team played tough, aggressive hockey and deserved a place in the championship game. Instead, they lost a closely-contested match, 4-2, to Chicago Hawks with Chicago scoring their final goal into an empty net. The loss prevented the locals from advancing to the final game.

The Chicago crew would be a 'AAA' team in any Ontario league but U.S. rules allow a team considerable flexibility in their choice of team categories. The Chicago-Georgetown match was a great game played by two excellent midget teams.

Georgetown went down 7-5 to Newmarket in their first game. The Sunny Acre squad was behind 4-1 in the first period but fought back to tie the game 5-5 at the end of the second.

A disallowed goal and some tough luck prevented Georgetown from pulling this one out late in the third period.

The Sunny Acre team defeated East York 5-3 in their second game. The team played great hockey and the Metro Toronto team was no match for the Georgetown boys.

Walter Bianchi travelled with the team to Sarnia and supported them throughout the series.

The trip was a great experience for the players and the fans that followed the team to Sarnia.

The stars of the series were goaltender Mike Lorio, Stephen Roy, Todd Gull, Jon Hammer, Steve Turner, Ray Desouza, Mark Pusak, Glen Leslie, Scott Farley, Dun King, Paul Basha, Kevin Barclay, Wayne Morrow, Brent Smith, Marc Bertrand, Jay Anderson and Keith Rieger.

Dick Krouse and Bill Hunter play a shot during the Halton-Peel Men's Bonspiel last Thursday night at the North Halton Golf and Curling Club. These two were paired with skip Al Dean and Doc Russell to make up one of 13 North Halton rinks. A total of 110 rinks from Orangeville, Acton, Milton, Oakville, Georgetown and Brampton competed.

Video atoms split games

The Georgetown H and H Video minor atom A's had a busy week playing five games with a win, two ties and two defeats. The low scores this week show once again outstanding goaltending by Marc St. Pierre. On Tuesday, the Dundas team defeated our boys 6-2 with goals by Andrew Elliott, unassisted and Jeff Dickey assisted by Steve Leoni and Greg Dawson.

The game against Milton was fast-paced from the very beginning and Georgetown never let up, battling to a 2-2 tie. Greg Dawson scored unassisted and Steve Wright put one in from Jeff Wright and Steven Leoni.

In a close-matched 2-1 loss to Oakville Friday, Steve Wright assisted by Jeff Pettigrew scored Georgetown's lone goal.

Saturday night Burlington couldn't tie it up with Georgetown winning 2-1. Goals were by Jeff Dickey and Jeff Wright, with assists going to Peter Cambouris, Gord Buchan and Steve Wright.

In Streetsville Sunday night, the boys continued their fast skating and good checking, tying the game 1-1, with Steve Wright scoring from Jeff Wright and Steve Smith.

The entire team is really working together giving the AA teams fierce competition.

Squash gals win

The Georgetown Racquet Club ladies hosted and defeated Fitness East of Scarborough in Inter-Club Squash action last week.

The Georgetown team, selected from the Ladies Day League, swept to a 4-0 team victory.

Gloria Sinclair and Jan Cook both about their respective opponents, 3-0, while Wendy Cotton and Pat Harris were 3-1 winners.

Meanwhile, the Georgetown men dropped a close decision in 'D' League play last week in Oakville.

Brian Day won a close 3-2 decision, and John McNally was a default winner when his opponent was injured, but the men still fell to a 2-3 team defeat.

Murray Jans and Ken Thorn dropped close, 2-3 matches, while Kevin Sandifer fell 0-3.

Minor bants win

The Georgetown Chateau minor bantams started out rather slowly in their first game of the new year last Sunday, giving evidence to a long layoff. The result was okay, though, as they took a 4-2 win over Streetsville.

In the first period the boys came up with a case of elbowitis and played short-handed more than once. No score resulted, though.

Jason Arnold opened the scoring with a marker midway in the second period, assisted by Ken Langdon and Alain Thibault. Streetsville tied the score while two men abort on a give-away.

Thibault and Pat McCarthy put two more on the board for Georgetown with unassisted efforts. Streetsville narrowed the score to 3-2 in the third on a scramble goal while we were a man short. Arnold put the game away late in the period picking up a clearing pass at mid-ice from Ken Langdon and moving to the slot before letting go with his hard shot.

The boys looked physically tired and without stamina this game. Without some good saves by goaltender Steve Eastwood the score might have been different.
