Liftechers stage upset

By R.A. DUBY

Persistent forechecking and an enthusiastic team effort led the Georgetown Liftech major atoms to a come-from-behind upset victory, 3-2 over a fast-skating Burlington team last Sunday at Memorial Arena. The number one ranked Burlington team had lost only one regular season game prior to their defeat on Sunday.

Burlington rushed in to score their second goal. The strong Burlington team continued to increase the pressure, encouraged by their cheering fans. Down two goals, coaches Dave Parent and Clint Guest inspired their players to continue the effort.

Sports Campers win tourney

By BOYD HODDINOTT
Herald correspondent
The Georgetown North Halton sports Camp peewee "AA" reps captured the 36th annual Lindsay Kinsmen Tournament this weekend.

Georgetown defeated Mississauga North Stars 5-2 Saturday morning as Mike Wilkins counted three times. In game two Georgetown fought back from a 2-0 deficit to whip Kingston Township 6-3.

Despite being outplayed the locals were able to shut out Stratford 2-0 to win the "AA" championship. In this game our boys learned how to play disciplined hockey in their own zone while Sean Colton and Curtis Green were outstanding in goal.

With the teams playing two skaters aside Curtis Green made a super save to send it into one-on-one.

Bennett scored the clincher to cap the championship. Curtis Green and Sean Colton justly deserved the outstanding goalie award. They were helped by excellent defence from Chris Stoddart, Brent Presswood and Adam Bennett.

In Tri-County action, Georgetown tied Dundas 2-2 and defeated Milton 6-3 and Streetsville 7-0. With three games remaining the Sports Camp peewees hold a 22-2-1 record.

McNally atoms win all four since taking Hespeler bronze

By GARY LANE
Herald correspondent
After holding on to win the bronze medal at the Hespeler Olympic Tournament during the Christmas break, the Georgetown McNally Firefighter atoms are now back participating in regular league play.

Guistini has been a big part of the offense over the last two weeks collecting eight goals and two assists. Linemates Adam Hagen and Trevor Elinesky have also been working hard as Hagen earned eight assists with Elinesky gathering two goals and five assists.

With Oakville right on the heels of Georgetown in the standings this game was equally important to each team. Oakville capitalized with their first two shots of the game but Dusty Lane shut the door after the first period until his teammates could pull ahead to stay. Duane Lewis scored the winner in this one to go with three assists during the week.

Adam Hills notched yet another three goals to set the pace in the win over Streetsville. Again Georgetown held a 5-0 lead only to give up a pair of late Streetsville tallies. In the four starts Hills had four goals and as many assists while his winger Jason Smith had three markers and a helper.

Georgetown girls roll top Milton, Oakville

By SUE DUNNING
Herald correspondent
The Georgetown senior girls hockey team continue to dominate their league, leading the Halton standings with 13 wins and 1 tie. In their last three outings Georgetown defeated Milton 2-0, and both Oakville teams by scores of 2-0 and 6-1.

Georgetown goaltender Joan Gilmer also leads the Halton standings with a 1.4 goals against average. Her consistent play in the net seems to spark the senior team toward victory.

The girls have four games remaining in the league schedule before going into playoffs. On Monday the seniors travel to Milton and then host Oakville on Sunday at 5 p.m., at the Memorial Arena.

Earning eight points over two games was top scorer Lisa Allen. Clare Carter tallied five points, while Debby Osborne, Denean Jones and Jodi Peebles each earned four points.
