Repeat winners to zone play

For the second year in a row the team of Steve and Shirley McDermot and George and Joan Shapcott are headed to the OCA inter-zone playdowns, after being one of two winners at the Zone playdowns this weekend at Milton.

Sixteen teams started the double knockout competition on Friday night. McDermot won his first three games and lost his fourth game for the A-side final to Peter File of Brampton. They then played R. MacCracken of Brampton in the B-side final and came out on top after an extra end.

There will be eight teams competing at the inter-zones, to be held at Glanford Feb. 4-5. The top two teams will make it to the Ontario finals.

Lloyd and Joan Trimble and Bruce and Julie White were at the Muskoka Mixed this weekend and finished second in the fifth event. Congratulations.

The Mid-Winter Bouspiel is underway this week with the finals on Saturday. The theme is medieval times and they will be looking for the best costumes. There will be a dance following the finals, so come out and enjoy the fun.

LePage bants drub Ancaster, lose at tourney

The first place Georgetown A.E. LePage bantams played Ancaster twice in the past week, resulting in one loss 5-3, and one win 10-2.

Georgetown was defeated by Ancaster as a result of too many penalties, and a very strong defensive Ancaster team. The opposition took the lead in the first period, after dominating the play. In the second period Mike Flynn's hard skating registered two goals for the locals, tying the game 2-2. Neil Munro and Mike Chiovitti assisted on Flynn's goals. The Ancaster team exerted a great deal of pressure in the third period, and capitalized on LePage's numerous penalties, by scoring three goals. Ray Fisher lit the lamp for Georgetown, after being set up by Neil Munro at the blue line. It was an extremely busy night for Garry Butwell in net, who faced 34 shots, including a penalty shot, which he successfully foiled.

Three days later in Georgetown, the LePage's showed the same Ancaster team who was really boss on the ice, by drubbing them 10-2. It was a great night for the Georgetown forwards, and a nightmare for the Ancaster goalie.

The locals put five shots behind him, by the end of the first period. The teamwork and scoring action continued throughout the game, as the Georgetown players made it look easy. Chuck Peebles earned another hat-trick (his fourth of the season), while Mike Flynn, Mike Ross and Ray Fisher counted twice, and Steve Fletcher counted a single. Assists were drawn by

Candy peewees split four outings

The Georgetown Candy Production peewees split four league outings this week. Their best effort was a 5-2 decision over Orangeville. Stephen Leo opened the scoring for the locals, connecting early from Daryl Sproule and Charlie Hancock.

Georgetown a 2-0 advantage in what had become a rough and dirty game. Jeremy Felce upped the margin to 3-0 from Sproule, before Marc Muraghan connected on a break-away. Sproule closed out the Georgetown scoring, from Hancock and John Brooker. Meanwhile, goaltender Scott Compton gave the locals an excellent effort to preserve the margin of victory. The return match was Sunday night at Memorial Arena, and this time, Orangeville slipped away with a 4-3 decision. Georgetown's Jason Knight opened the scoring in this one, from Stuart Vogt and Greg Onoprijenko. Twice after that, the locals rallied from single-goal deficits to tie the score, before finally falling 4-3. Vogt, from Onoprijenko, and Hancock from Lee and Kevin Roe, were the Georgetown marksmen.

Rebel girls win

By KAREN PAYNE

The Georgetown Rebel senior girls volleyball team travelled to Perdue in Oakville last Tuesday. Georgetown won two of three games by identical 15-9 scores. The team goes to Perdue in Oakville this week. They host Oakville Trafalgar on Thursday.

Regain first place in GIHL standings

Sports rally to victory

The M and M Pro Sports rallied from a 2-0 deficit to defeat the Hollywood Tavern, 3-2, and move back into first place in Georgetown Industrial Hockey League action Sunday at Gordon Alcott Arena.

The Hollywood Tavern are second with 20, with three weeks left on the GIHL schedule. In the other game, the Riviera Raiders pounded the Acton Sitting Bull Tavern Knights, 14-5.

Doug Barnes paced the Raider attack with four goals and an assist. Paul Gingras, Pat Tunney, John Barnes and Don Richards all popped a pair of goals, while Mike Coffey, and Tony Perkins fired singles.

Craig Andrews found the mark twice in a losing cause for Acton, with Earl Sheppard, Chris Rowsell and Tim Evans all counting once.

Randy Robbins and Mark Snow scored first-period goals to put the Hollywood Tavern up two goals, but Gary Halls found the mark from Steve Crossman and Steve Venka to halve the margin after two complete periods.

Exchange House wins sponge hockey day

The Exchange House defeated the Gold Key Wizards in a shootout to win the winter's first sponge hockey tournament last weekend at the Riviera Club. Six teams, including more than 80 players, signed on for the day-long tourney. Teams included the Exchange House, Gold Key, the Riviera, the Newfoundland Club, M and M Pro Sports, and the Swarm.

Sponge hockey is similar to ice hockey, except that the players wear broomball shoes rather than skates. A soft sponge-rubber puck is used, as opposed to a regulation puck. Also, teams play a goaltender plus six attackers, one more player than is used in regular hockey.

The teams were divided into two pools when the tourney got underway Sunday at 9 a.m., playing off in a seven-game, round-robin until two divisional winners had been declared. The Exchange House battled Brampton's

Mike Stone was the big shooter for Georgetown, with a hat-trick and two assists. Howie Oram also had a five-point night, scoring twice while setting up three others. Brian Stone and Danny Curtis both had a pair of goals and an assist for the locals. Kevin Gillespie added three assists to his goal to make a four-point effort. Mark Webster and Derek Roy counted singles to round out the Georgetown scoring. The Georgetown juveniles finished their Tri-County season with a 21-5-1 won-lost-tied mark. They are now awaiting the winner of a Dundas-Milton playoff to begin OMHA play. They will travel to Mooretown, Ontario, on the weekend, to compete in the Silver Stick Hockey Tournament.
