

Weeks on strike binge

During the Junior YBC morning bowling session last Saturday at Georgetown Bowl, Sandra Weeks, 12, set a new record by starting the day with seven consecutive strikes, a corner pin spare, a second spare and another corner for a total of 361.

She followed this effort with a 350 game. But, in the third, with only two strikes, four corners and a chop-off, she only produced 180 pins for a 391 series. This is Weeks' top effort as a rookie junior and should give her junior team members a lift for the coming "Four Steps to Stardom" YBC championships. Normally, a 783 would be a weekly top three game series in the YBC, but Glen Kaiser's effort with a 315 single high was thus overshadowed by Sandra Weeks. However, as a member of his GDHS team, Kaiser was an important cog in winning the All-Ontario Provincial Championship. COMBO TEAM STILL FIRST

The YBC Combo team from Georgetown Bowl is still maintaining its comfortable lead of over 20 points in the West Division. With only two months to go it would be an almost impossible task for the teams from Acton, Guelph, Milton, Oakville and Mississauga to stop the locals from repeating their last year's win. Georgetown uses this tournament as a training ground for bowlers in the bantam, junior and senior ranks and thus each month's team has a change of bowlers. The current winning team was made up of Brian Bell, Tracy Weeks, Kim Wright, Chris Somers, Trina Bassett and Paul Chaplin.

JUNIORS: Sandra Weeks 361 (361), Julie McCorry 270 (291), Denise Allan 267 (259), Kim Wright 209 (229).
BANTAMS: Ian Vlas 504 (294), Eddie Doyle 353 (321), Brian Bell 511 (314), Michael Larocque 508 (214), Alexander Kermack 464 (178), Paul Andrews 470 (188), Michael McElroy 457 (176).
PEEWEEES: Amy Korzack 318 (311), Cindy Smith 288 (123), Krista Robertson 281 (122), Kerry Wright 280 (169), Julie Loud 244 (82).
