

Trojan forward Linda Donais drives around a Capricorn defender in this Georgetown Ladies Basketball League game Wednesday night, won 43-42 by the undefeated Trojans.

Mustangs top Cougars Trojans sneak by Caps

The Capricorns came within a whisker of doing what no other Georgetown Ladies Basketball League team has been able to do, Wednesday night - at Centennial School.

Still, the Caps fell short against the undefeated Trojans, dropping a 43-42 cliffhanger. The Trojans are now unbeaten and untied in 15 league starts this winter.

Sue Tesar paced the victorious Trojans with 13 points. Anita Stankus, Lorraine Brown and Joy Thompson all connected for six points in a winning cause.

Pat Nessit downed 12 points for the losing side. Janet MacKay had 10 points, and Meredith MacLaren six.

In other action, the Mustangs downed the Cougars, 37-32. Hermanna Henderson and Corinne Bulsman led the Mustangs with eight points each, while Alice Ogden contributed six points to the winning attack.

Leslie Durham paced the Cougars with 10 points. Wendy Moore hit for seven points, and Sjanna Young added six points.

Industrial Hockey League action

Norval, Raiders tie 6-6

The Hollywood Tavern got third-period goals from Larry Peterson and Mike McMenemy to gain a 6-6 tie with the Riviera Raiders in Georgetown Industrial Hockey League action Sunday morning at Gordon Alcott Arena.

The Taverners had built a 4-2, first-period lead, but four unanswered tallies in the middle frame had sent the Raiders into the intermission with a 6-4 advantage.

Brian Beaumont, Mike McMenemy, Ian Syme and Bruce McPhail all counted for the Norval crew in their first-period barrage, while Doug Barnes and Marty Weaven replied for the Riviera gang.

John Blair and Don Richards sandwiched singles around two more Doug Barnes goals as the Raiders pulled away in the second session.

The other game of the week was a one-sided affair, as the M and M Pro Sports bombed the Acton Sitting Bull Tavern Knights, 10-3.

The Sports spent half the game building a 5-0 margin, but Acton came charging back with three goals in less than five minutes.

The Pro Sports then finished things off with five unanswered goals over the final 12 minutes of play. Brian McKenzie was the big shooter for M and M, picking up a hat-trick while setting up two other goals. Andy Broadbent picked up two goals and a pair of assists. Terry Moustgaard, Ernie Schaump, Roger Chapman, Steve Venka and Gary Halls all fired singles for the winners. Chris Rowsell, Mike Murray and Randy Coulson replied for Acton.

There are no games scheduled for Sunday.

Georgetown juveniles knocked out in semis

The setting was different, but the storyline remained unchanged for the Georgetown Shaw Trophies-DRG Stationery juveniles at the Mooretown Silver Stick Hockey Tournament on the weekend.

The locals were knocked out of the running in the semi-finals, by their Tri-County nemesis, Burlington. Burlington and Brampton were the only teams to beat Georgetown in 28 league starts this year.

Georgetown drew Burlington after knocking off the two-time defending tournament champions, Whitby, and another Tri-County rival, Chinguacousy. The locals twice fought back from deficits of 2-0 and 3-1, before losing 4-3 on a goal scored with just 2:19 left to play. Howie Oram, John Hodgson and Hank Hamilton scored for Georgetown. Oram drew an assist on Hodgson's goal.

Brian Stone had paced Georgetown to their opening-game victory over Whitby, counting three goals in a 5-2 win. Oram and Mike Stone tallied the other Georgetown markers.

Stone's second goal was a shorthanded effort, with goaltender Shawn Glassford drawing an assist on the play.

In their second outing, Georgetown built a 4-1 lead midway through the match, then held on for a 4-3 decision over Chinguacousy.

Eric Clark, Derek Roy, Oram and Glen Baker scored the Georgetown goals.

ATHLETE OF THE MONTH (FOR JANUARY)

WAYNE MORROW

Herald employee Steve Foreman (left) presents the first 'Athlete of the Month' trophy to Sunny Acres midget hockey player Wayne Morrow. Ollie Tichel of North Halton Sports, co-sponsors of the award for the month of January, was on hand for the presentation. Morrow, 16, of Raylawn Crescent, was named winner of the award after his outstanding efforts in the 18th annual Georgetown Minor Hockey Association Midget Tournament, a performance that earned him recognition as the tourney MVP. Morrow scored four goals in as many games, leading the Sunny Acres midgets into the tourney final.
