Optimist minor peewees one game up

By McElroy and Pearce
Herald correspondents

The Georgetown Optimist minor peewees earned a second victory in their OMHA playoff with Owen Sound, 5-3, Sunday at Memorial Arena.

Georgetown set the pace for this game with Rod Pasma scoring early in the first frame from Mike Melville and

Pipe novices top Orangeville, 3-2

On Saturday, despite some questionable calls, the Georgetown Concrete Pipe novices beat Orangeville 3-2.

On one occasion Andy Jones, with a great second effort, potted a goal. To the dismay of the Georgetown contingent, it was disallowed when the officials ruled that the play had been whistled dead.

Another questionable call occurred when Orangeville tipped in the puck after the whistle. This one was allowed.

Goals were by Troy Schirk, Matthew Lush and Andy Jones while assists came from Jason Walker, Jones and Schirk.

Lush, Ryan Teeter and goalie Andrew Ashenhurst were the selected Georgetown stars.

The win, however, was short-lived when the next day first place Burlington came to town and swamped the Pipers 11-0. This time the local stars were Jamie Stephenson, Jones and Ashenhurst.

Wade Serjeantson on a beautiful two on one break. At 4:51 Owen Sound tied the game on a power play.

At 1:44 Andy Pearce put the Optimists ahead 2-1 with a wrist shot high in the corner from Dale McInven, but Owen Sound again retaliated with 28 seconds remaining to make it a 2-2 game.

Midway through the second frame, Mark Mininch sent Mark Lorito in alone to count after a slippery series of dekes to give Georgetown a 3-2 lead.

In the final period, Owen Sound rallied again to tie the game, but at 11:09 Mike Melville counted the game winner on a series of rebounds from Wade Serjeantson and Wes McCauley. Rod Pasma scored with a slap shot on a long pass from Wes McCauley to cement the 5-3 victory for Georgetown. Richard Rivard tended goal for the locals with a very hot glove.

Game four will be played at the Alcott Arena on Saturday Feb. 25, at 2:30 and game five, if required starts in Owen Sound on Feb. 26 at 3:30 p.m.

GAME TWO
Playing at the Bayshore Community Centre in Owen Sound on Saturday, Georgetown suffered a 4-2 loss despite spectacular goaltending by Chris Cambouris. The first frame produced hard, end-to-end skating and a scoreless 10 minutes for both teams.

Early in the second period Owen Sound took a 1-0 lead. At 6:44 Dale McInven was in perfect position to capitalize on two passes from Mike Melville and Andy Pearce on a nice rush into Owen Sound territory, to tie the game, with 1:22 remaining in this period, Owen Sound counted again to take a 2-1 lead.

Owen Sound added two more counters in the third period before Bill McDonald made it 4-2 on a flip shot from Mike Barnes and Chad Bailey.

Owen Sound dominated this game and with the flu plaguing the Georgetown numbers, all the efforts from Georgetown did nothing to stop the opposition shooters.

GAME ONE
Losing the toss for home ice advantage in this best of five quarter-final for the OMHA zone championship, the minor peewee "AA" Optimists hosted Owen Sound at Memorial Arena, taking the first hard-fought victory 5-3.

Owen Sound counted twice before Bill McDonald made it 2-1 on two targeted passes from Andy Pearce and David Hodgson.

Owen Sound held a 3-1 lead over the locals by the end of the second frame.

Major atoms have busy week split playoffs with Milton

The Georgetown McNally Firefighter major atoms have had a busy week with three games in five days. The team split a pair of playoff games with Milton, losing 4-3 on foreign ice but taking a 5-2 win at Memorial Arena Sunday.

Sandwiched between the two contests was a 4-0 loss to the Missis-sauga Black Hawks in a game in which Georgetown outshot their opposition but just couldn't get the puck over the goal line.

In the series with Milton it has been Adam Hills who has been carrying the load offensively as he counted twice in the 4-3 loss and then scored all five goals in the 5-2 victory.

Traditionally the two teams have been evenly matched and this year has been no exception. With the score tied at 3-3 in Milton and Hills right in, the Milton netminder made a tremendous stop and as so often happens Milton came right back to capitalize on a break-

Candy kids roll out Owen Sound

The Georgetown Candy Production peewees rolled through their OMHA playoff series against Owen Sound in three straight games, piling up lopsided scores on their way to victory.

The locals opened the best-of-five round with an easy 9-3 win Thursday night at Memorial Arena. The Candy kids then travelled north for two weekend games, winning the series on the strength of 13-1 and 6-1 decisions.

Saturday's 13-1 romp was the back-breaker for Georgetown, as five players contributed two-goal efforts. Stephen Lee, Jeremy Felce, Greg Onoprijenko, Stu Vogt and Darryl Sproule all lit the lamp twice for the locals. John Wilson, Jason Knight and Marc Murnaghan contributed single markers.

Friday night the Georgetown H and H Video minor atoms defeated a Brampton 'Intercity' team in a well-played, fast skating exhibition game.

Outstanding in goal, Marc St. Pierre earned the 3-0 shutout. Scoring Georgetown's goals were Steve Wright (2) and Jeff Wright, with assists going to Jeff Pettigrew and Steve Leoni.

Local gals second best

Donna Blight, Greta Lamb, Mary Wands and Marilyn Micklethwaite were at Woodbridge recently. They won both their games in a one-day 'Spiel' and finished second for the day.

The Business Women's second draw was concluded last week and taking top honors were Joan Trimble, Cathy Perego, Joan Sanford and Betty Cox. Taking second place was the team of Sharon Wood, Gert McGee, Carroll Evans and Lilliane Stewart. Third went to Karin Henderson, Jacky Foskett, Lois Massey and Dot Hicks.

The Mixed Committee held a meeting last week with Butch Fisher as chairperson. He had no comment when asked what was happening, but word has it they are planning great things for the 'Cornelius', which is our final fling at year's end. Watch for further information.

The Men's Monday-night and the ladies' Tuesday and Thursday draws conclude their second draw this week, so watch for the winners next week.

Graham Farnell took his Masters' team to Acton this weekend for the Inter-zone playdowns. They did not fair as well as Brampton, losing their first two games to some very good competition.
