

North Halton curling

Local rink takes 2nd

Thanks to Joan Trimble and Marg O'Flaherty the Business Women's Invitational bonspiel was a great success on the weekend.

Winning the A.E. LePage trophy was the team of Debbie Snow of Humber Highland. Right behind them in second spot was our own girls, skip Karin Henderson, vice Jane Burrows, second Lynne Jefferson and lead Joan Sanford.

A few of our other North Halton ladies teamed up with friends of outside rinks. Local Lois Massey played with Sally Moreton from Chinguacousy and placed third, while Patti MacLaren and Sharon Wood curled with Marilyn Johnston of Dundas Granite and finished sixth.

We are slowly winding down our curling season, and as always we will end it with a successful week of curling.

The Cornelius runs April 8-14. The sign-up sheet is up and we need you. You have a choice of playing Monday-Wednesday-Friday nights or Sunday-Tuesday-Thursday nights with the finals on Saturday, followed by a dinner-dance.

Sign up today or call one of the committee to put your name down. Committee members are Butch Fisher, Jim and Dot Hicks, Ian and Norma Muir and Lois Makounyk.

The Junior-Senior Bonspiel has been re-scheduled for Sunday, April 1.

Firefighters close out year

By GARY LANE
Herald correspondent

During the March break our Georgetown McNally Firefighter's team closed out their hockey season after competing in the 25th annual Brampton Lions Tournament. Despite skating without vacationing forwards Sean Guistini and David Lawrence the club went the full eight games before bowing to the Mississauga Reps in the consolation final.

The first three games featured round-robin play in which the Firefighters lost a pair, putting them in the consolation round for elimination play.

In game one Georgetown met the Mississauga Black Hawks and came out on the short end of a 2-1 score. Several missed scoring opportunities resulted in the loss with Trent Cull setting up Adam Hills for Georgetown's only score.

In their second game of the day Georgetown easily outscored the Mississauga North Stars 6-2. Brad Amato had a pair of goals while Steve Brown had five points on a goal and three assists. Also scoring were Jason Smith, Adam Hagen and Hills.

On Wednesday night the team played a rather sloppy game against Newmarket. Brown and Hagen gave Georgetown a 2-0 second period edge but four unanswered goals by Newmarket put the final score at 4-2 and dropped Georgetown from the championship round.

Facing elimination by losing, the McNally crew met Riverside next and skated to an easy 9-0 victory. Scully Brown led the way with a goal and five assists while both Smith and Brian Brooker had two goals apiece. Duane Lewis, Hills, Hagen and Amato added singles with John Cruise earning two assists. A chippy Riverside team took nine of 14 penalties while Dusty Lane and Terry Metler shared the shutout.

In Georgetown's most interesting game of the tournament, the Firefighters met Thornhill on Friday morning. The Georgetown blue liners led by Johnny Jickling played a perfect game and didn't allow a shot to reach netminder Lane enroute to Georgetown's 3-0 win. Duane Lewis broke a scoreless tie with a nice shot to the bottom corner with 3:41 remaining in the game on Georgetown's twenty-fifth shot on goal. Brown and Hills added late goals in this very exciting contest.

Trojans top Mustangs, Cougars claw Capricorns

Sue Tesar connected for a team-high 23 points to lead the Trojans to a 61-41 victory over the Mustangs in the opening week of the Georgetown Ladies Basketball League playoffs.

Anita Stankus hit for another 16 Trojan points, while Joy Thompson downed eight points.

Hermia Henderson was top shooter for the Mustangs, clicking for nine points. Alice Ogden contributed seven points to the Mustang attack, while Corinne Buisman connected for six points.

Capricorns, 55-41. Carolyn Heron paced the Cougar attack with 22 points. Leslie Durham downed 20 for the winners, and Wendy Moore hit for eight.

Debbie Barber was the best Capricorn shooter with 12 points, while Janet MacKay downed nine points.

In the other first-round playoff game, the Cougars downed the Product peewees compete

By RON NEEDHAM
Herald correspondent

The Georgetown Standard Products minor peewee 'A' team travelled to London during the March break to compete in an international hockey tournament. The team played very well and although they lost the three games they played the opposition knew they were fortunate to win.

Georgetown came out fast in the opening game against Brantford and held a 2-0 lead after three minutes. Chris Bechard opened the scoring on a nice feed from Bobby Bouskill. Shortly after the boys scored again on a power play as Sean Gardner scored from a scramble with Chris Bechard and Jimmy English picking up the assists. The first period ended 2-2.

In the second game Georgetown came up against a well disciplined Ajax team and dropped a close 3-1 decision. Sean Gardner counted the lone Georgetown goal on a nifty lead pass from Rob Boyle. Ron Desrosiers was strong in goal and was rewarded with the MVP award for the game.

The final game saw Kitchener post a 1-0 win in a game which Georgetown dominated but just couldn't buy a goal.

Rob Boyle was voted the team's most-sportsmanlike-player award for the tournament.

Trojan attacker Joy Thompson drives towards the Mustang basket during the first game of the Georgetown Ladies Basketball League playoffs Wednesday night at Centennial School. Thompson had eight points as the Trojans stopped the Mustangs, 61-41.

ALL FOUR CURLING

Sixteen rinks from Humber, Guelph, Dixie, Richmond Hill, Dundas, Chinguacousy, St. Catharines, Hyde Park, Milton and the host North Halton Curling Club gathered in Georgetown Wednesday for the annual Business Ladies Open Bonspiel. The local rink (left to right) of lead Joan Sanford, vice Jane Burrows, skip Karin Henderson and second Lynne Jefferson came second
