1984 GMHA award winners

Some 49 hockey players were honored with individual awards during the Georgetown Minor Hockey Association's 'Weekend of Champions'.

The most-valuable player, most-improved player, the top rookie, the stingiest goaltender (Vezina) and the player who best combines skill and sportsmanship (Lady Byng) were selected for each of the nine GMHA house leagues, and the girls' team.

The MVPs were Joan Gilmer (girls), Andreas Hack (juvenile), Dean Morgan (midget), Matthew Moore (minor pee-wee), Alain Shields (bantam), Eddie Powers (major pee-wee), Claude Johnston (major atom), Shawn Curry (minor atom), Matt Deruchie (novice) and Paul Sandifer (tyke).

Selected as most-improved in their respective leagues were Laureo Sears (girls), Ken Morrow (juvenile), John Williams (midget), Jeff Hannah (minor pee-wee), Todd Norton (bantam), Francis McLean (major pee-wee), Allan Fudge (major atom), Shane Coulas (minor atom), Joshua Barber (novice) and Richard Hennessey (tyke).

The Lady Byng winners were Lisa Allen (girls), Bruce Sheppard (juvenile), Dave McKinnon (midget), R.J. Fleming (minor pee-wee), Geoff Goodfellow (bantam), Daryn Colton (major pee-wee), Paul Lalonde (major atom), Darcy Boudreau (minor atom), Grant Goodfellow (novice) and Marc Boucher (tyke).

Top rookies were Sherry Geneau (girls), Gary Slavin (juvenile), Terry Flynn (midget), Scott Vande Valk (minor pee-wee), Dean Soucie (bantam), Ian Johnson (major pee-wee), Michael James (major atom) and Tom Heinz (minor atom).

Vezina-winning goaltenders were Fred Kendrick and Rob Monroe (juvenile), Adam Djuk (midget), Craig Moore (minor pee-wee), Brian Chrichton and Geoff Tyler (bantam), Napoleon Benito and Chris Smith (major pee-wee), Scott Friend and Carlo Parenti (major atom) and Thomas Spencer (minor atom).

Riv Kennedy Sr. and Bill King, who handled the senior girls team, were selected as coach and manager of the year, respectively.
