

Ashgrove elections

By Mrs. JOHN BELLEBODDY Herald Correspondent
ASHGROVE - The annual women's institute meeting was held April 16 in Hillcrest Church with Mrs. Clayton Wilson as hostess. President Mrs. John Bird opened the meeting. Roll call was humorous as each member told about one of their Easter bonnets.

Rug braiding was the course chosen for fall and five were interested in meat management. The four voting delegates to attend the district annual in May are the president, district director, 1st vice and the secretary-treasurer. Mrs. J.H. Hunter reported on the rural organization and services branch meeting she had attended lately. Secretary Mrs. John Ruddle read last year's annual minutes, also gave this past year's financial statements.

Reports from the standing committees all showed a gratifying year. Mrs. Ann Norton the district president then came forward and declared all offices vacant. Mrs. C. Hunter gave the nominating report after which Mrs. Norton installed the new officers for 1984-85: Past president Mrs. John Bird, president Mrs. Bruce McClure, 1st vice Mrs. Ford Wickham, 2nd vice Mrs. Pat Stark, secretary-treasurer Mrs. Gordon Wingfield, assistant Mrs. G. Bird, district director Mrs. John Bird, alternate Mrs. John McNabb, branch director Mrs. J. McNabb, Mrs. G. Bird.
