

Doctorate for John

DR. J. CRAWFORD

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Crawford of Halton Hills, Ontario, (formerly of Hamilton, Ontario) are very proud to announce the graduation of their son, John Patrick, with the degree of Doctor of Philosophy. His doctoral thesis was completed in the Department of Pathology, University of Toronto Medical School, and he received his diploma at the 1983 Fall convocation ceremony.

Dr. Crawford is currently attending the second year of the four-year program of study offered at Toronto's Canadian Memorial Chiropractic College.

Through a generous grant from the Foundation for Chiropractic Education and Research, Arlington, Virginia, Dr. Crawford is continuing his research activities, investigating the immunological aspects of arthritic disease.

St. John's hold thank-offering

Herald Special St. John's United Church Women held their spring thank-offering meeting April 9. Prior to the meeting, dessert and coffee were served by the members of Unit 5.

President Ruth Keely welcomed the ladies and called on the Tri-S group to conduct the worship service.

The theme for the devotional was "living together in our world". Jill Blair and Sybil Ewing led in the worship.

The guest soloist was Allison Lipp, accompanied on the piano by her mother Nora Lipp.

Beth Allen introduced the guest speaker, Norma Godbold of Honeywood Ontario. Norma spoke to the meeting about the role of women at the Vancouver Assembly of the World Council of Churches held in the summer of 1983.

She said that never before have so many women gained access to dialogue and discussion at the World Council.

Following this slides were shown of the 8th Assembly of the World Council of Churches.

Kathryn Latimer thanked Mrs. Godbold for sharing her experiences and her slides with the women of St. John's.

Ruth Kelly closed the meeting with a benediction.

Correction(s)

Last week The Herald ran an article about author, Christopher Moore on Page 4, Section C.

In the re-write process, a number of mistakes crept into the copy. The award-winning Canadian writer was co-sponsored by the Halton Hills Library and the Esqueping Historical Society, not just the historical society, as was first reported. The talk was held at the Cultural Centre and not Knox Presbyterian Church. In addition, Mr. Moore spoke about his latest book "The Loyalists: revolution, exile and settlement rather than his earlier work, "Louisbourg Portrait". The Herald regrets the errors.

One step closer

Decreasing local representation on town council is the first step towards a one-tier regional government, Coun. Pam Sheldon warned Monday night.
