

Norval Mother's Day theme

By KAY WILSON
Herald Correspondent
NORVAL - Christian Family Day and Mother's Day were the themes at the United Church service Sunday morning with Rev. Walter Ridley's sermon "If we have not love."
The family of Fred and Linda Howse, Paul, Christopher and Debbie Anne took part in the service with the junior and Forever One choirs singing several numbers.

Norval Presbyterian Church had a beautiful morning service when the Sunday school had charge under the direction of Bea Henderson.
Marilyn McClure accompanied on the piano for the musical numbers. Others taking part were Ken Robinson, Sader Gombocz, Todd Grassy, Michele Robinson, Mark Carney, Peter Gombocz, Trevor Grassy, Sheri Topping, Adam Bond and Johnathon Fawcette.

Rev. Sutherland spoke to the congregation on "Grace and Faith" and a ladies trio from Hamilton sang musical numbers during the service.

The offering was taken by Mike Delaney, Robble Monckton, Andrea Grassy and Robert Topping.

At the close of the service Mary Bond and Sandy Campbell assisted the Junior Class in presenting each mother with a flower.
