May UCW meeting

BALLINAFAD - The May meeting of the U.C.W. was held in the basement of the church May 15.

Guests were present at this meeting from their sister church in Brampton. They were entertained by a skit put on by some of the members, also a special guest was Mrs. Potter who spoke on the Victor Home for girls.

She had slides which she commented on during her talk. A group of ladies from the church attended the Presbyterial meeting at Sandhill May 16.

9 members

BALLINAFAD - There were nine members from the Ballinafad W.I. who attended the Halton District Annual Meeting at Campbellville May 17.

Convocation for Sharon

BALLINAFAD - Mrs. Winifred Smith accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burt to Kingston Saturday where they attended the Convocation at Queen's University.

Their daughter Sharon graduated from the School of Rehabilitation as she received her Bachelor of Science Occupational Therapy Diploma.

Seriously injured

BALLINAFAD - There is still some concern for our young resident Ross Munro, who was seriously injured in a car accident recently. We sincerely hope that as time goes on he will make a complete recovery.

Volunteer jobs

Whether you are an active golfer or a spectator the Georgetown branch of the Canadian Cancer Society has a fun day planned for June 18 and your assistance is needed at the Annual Bill Smith Golf Tournament.

For more information call the North Halton volunteer Centre at 877-3219. These and many more opportunities await your call.

Crawford donation

The Halton Region Conservation Foundation will be receiving $50,000 from the Canadian National Sportsmen's Fund June 1.

Stewarttown news

J. Ross P. Stewart Herald Correspondent
STEWARTTOWN - Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Ken Tait on the arrival of twin girls, Amy and Jennifer, sisters for Joshua.

Mrs. J. Ross and William were wedding guests of a cousin at Hepworth last week-end and also a family luncheon at Jackson near Owen Sound.

Plants and seeds were blessed at St. John's for Rogation Sunday, also a pine tree donated for the 150th anniversary of St. John's. All were planted by Mr. and Mrs. C. Stephens with many thanks.

Mrs. H. Clarke spent a couple of days this past week at Synod for St.

John's.
The induction of Rev. D. Lee, Rector of St. Stephen's Hornby and St. John's, Stewarttown was conducted at St. Stephen's, Hornby on Sunday evening with Rev. D. Perry, Regional Dean of Trafalgar Deanery, and Major Rev. John F. Coutts.

Rev. Perry and Rev. Coutts both mentioned the fact that we are all ministers and must share responsibilities. After a very impressive service refreshments were served in the Parish Hall.

Mrs. M. Hicken and son Jason of Pembroke were visiting with Mrs. Hicken's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patterson of Rockwood for the week-end and were able to visit in this area Sunday before going back home.

PSYCHIC RESPONSE

Carole Matthews

Dear Carole:
I am sending a picture of someone special to me, my husband. Can you see a promotion, a move, another country, anything for 1984?

Yours truly,

Dear L.L.,
You are right, you have been uptight for no reason. Your husband and yourself have a very promising marriage, a definite bond there. Something that I find is lacking in many relationships lately. As far as work goes, I know he is going to do fine. He is a very well liked man and there are many opportunities for him in the next few years. These opportunities will require a move, Montreal? His company is probably associated with this city and you will be very successful there.

Your family is going to remain happy, stop worrying and enjoy the chances around you, you are too young to worry and remember, we only go this way once, so why do it worrying all the time.

North United Church minister Walter Ridley, Spencer Wilson, and Bill Laidlaw were all on hand last Saturday for their annual chicken barbecue. Close to a thousand people attended the function which was held at Huttonville School.
