Teachers moving on

Herald Staff

The Halton Roman Catholic Separate School Board will be losing two teachers as a result of resignations this year.

Solange Bechar, who has taught kindergarten at Ecole Sacre-Coeur Separate School for the past four years, will be moving with her husband to Timmins, Ontario.

"I want to take a year off in which time I may do some supply teaching," she said.

Alice DiGenova, who has taught at St. Francis of Assisi Separate School for ten years, will be moving with her husband to Belleville, Ontario.

Mrs. DiGenova has been involved with special education, working with students who have learning disabilities or students who are considered "gifted".

Ada is recovering

By WINIFRED SMITH
Herald Correspondent

BALLINAFAD-We were sorry to hear that Ada Kirkwood was involved in a car accident coming home from work

Trenton before she was married. Mrs. DiGenova has already applied for another job.

"I'm going to miss the children, parents and staff at St. Francis of Assisi and St. Joseph's," she said.

last Thursday evening. She is suffering from shock and bruises and recuperating at her home.

We hope she makes a complete recovery soon.
