O Canada — we toast your fervent spirit!

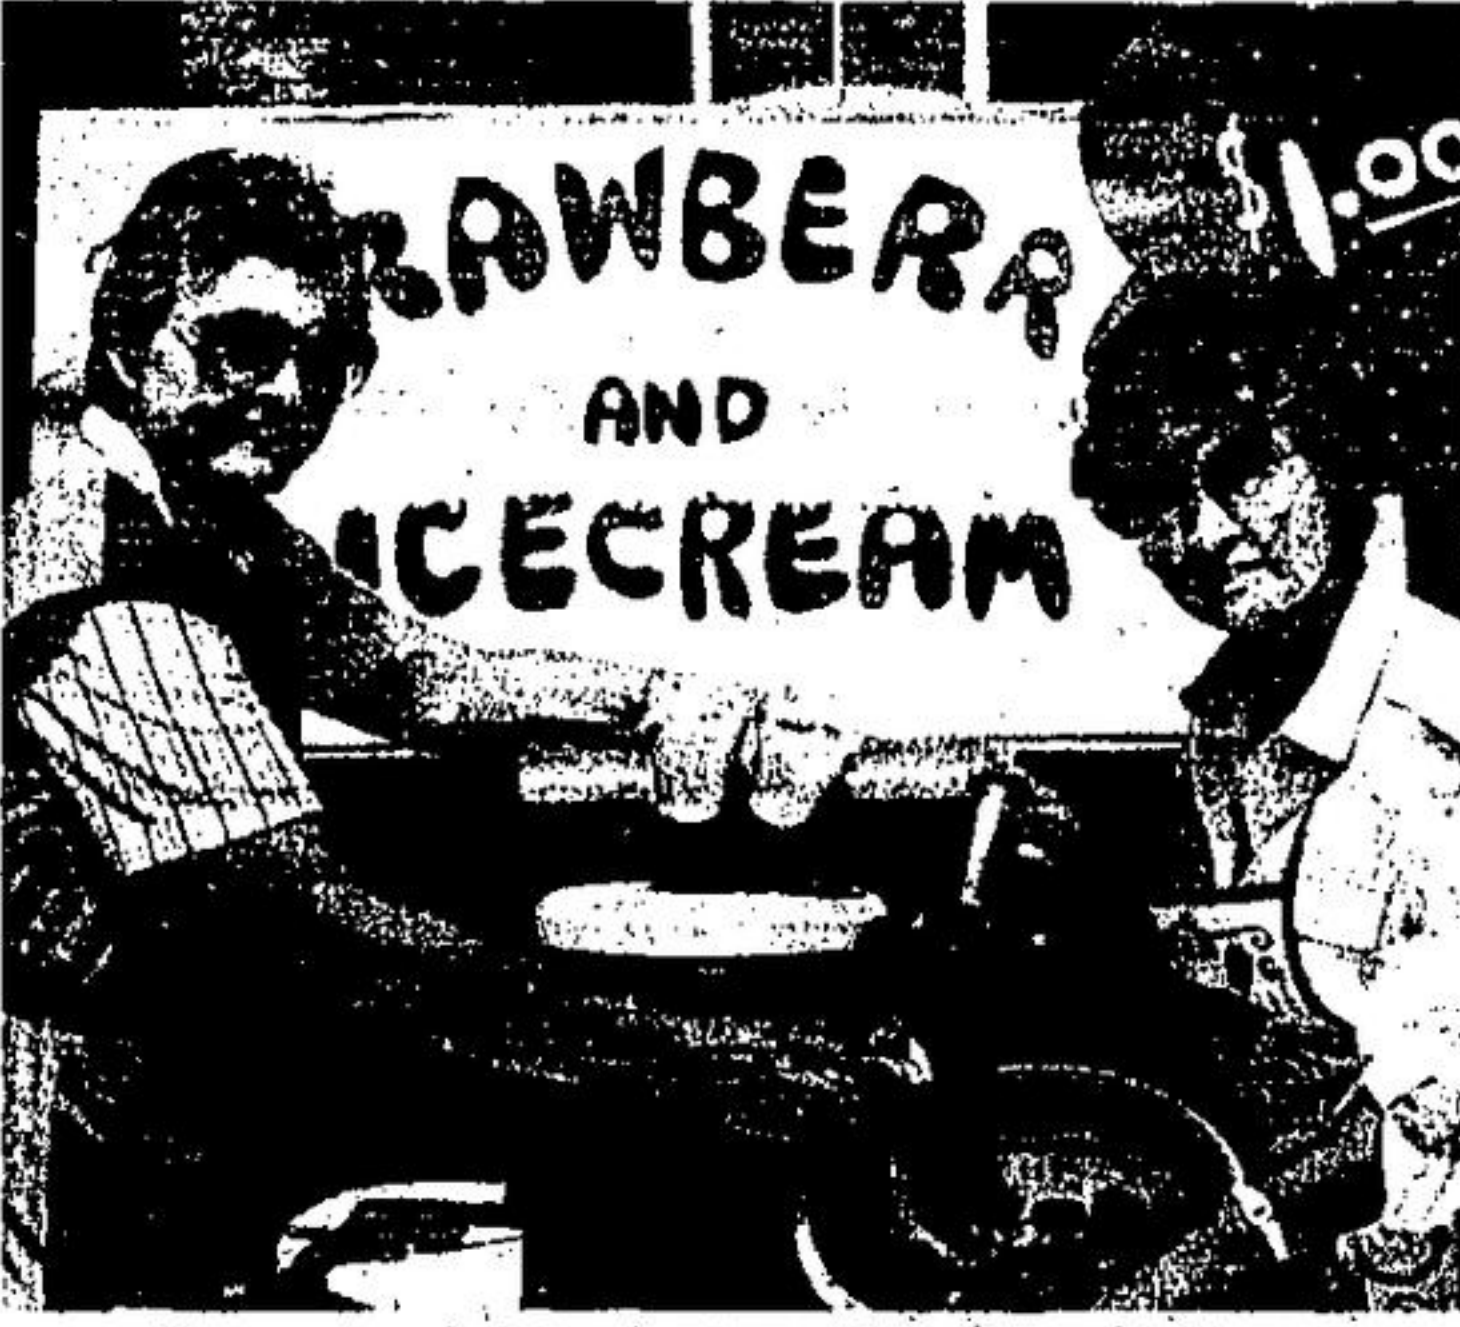

Celebrating together in Halton Hills

Does Margaret Brown, 3, have a sweet tooth? Yes, according to her mom. The youngster spent a tempting afternoon at the Limehouse Scout Hut Saturday helping her mom at a bake sale held by women of Limehouse Presbyterian Church. Money raised over the weekend was to go towards a restoration fund for Toronto's Knox College.

Ballinafad residents turned up to watch a colorful parade which included bikers Meridith Sones, 3, and her sister Roanne, 5. The two girls decorated their respective wagon and bike for the Canada Day celebration and joined forces with the mayor and others in the parade. Red and white, their float won them first prize for the under six category.

It was a fine day for a parade and spectators large Canadian flag were the dark green uniformed lined Glen Williams' Main Street to see the pomp and Air Cadets pageantry passing by. Leading the parade with a

Taking up the age old domestic skill of carding, 11-year old Sam Hutzenga gave Limehouse weaver Jette VanDerMeiden a helping hand in the Limehouse Memorial Hall Saturday afternoon.

Elaine Hannah of Limehouse (left) gave Gail John, also a Limehouse resident, tips on quilting. Mrs. Hannah is a member of the Women's Institute. She was inviting the public to try their hand at tying the quilt that will be given away soon in a draw. The two women were manning booths at the Limehouse Memorial Hall over the weekend.
