

A bike licence costs just $2.

Haltom Hills has a by-law stating that everyone who operates a bicycle must have a licence or be liable for a $5 fine.

Business hours, however, the Haltom regional police at District 1 are offering a chance for the public to bring their bicycles to the rear of the police station in Georgetown on Saturday, July 14, between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., where they can purchase a licence for $2. The $2 charge is a one-time fee and cyclists are asked to have the make, color, and serial number of the bike with them.

If the bike does not have a serial number, the police will stamp the owner's social insurance number on the bike. H and H Video have donated the use of a VCR and six movies for any three-day period for a draw which will be held at the end of the day for anyone who has purchased a licence. Baseball caps will also be awarded during the day. Having your bicycle licenced not only protects you from theft but also helps police.
