

Some games close, but no surprises Favorites capture football victories

By DON SCALLEN
All was back to normal in the Georgetown Flag Football League this week. Some of the games were close, but the teams expected to win did win. Smoke Shop outlasted North Halton 23-14, Corrigan humbled M and M 25-3, Foberts finally won a game beating Norval 33-14, Dairy Queen squeaked by the Longhorns 17-14 and the Greeks beat I.A.S. 34-3.

SMOKERS vs NORTH HALTON SPORTS
For the second consecutive week North Halton performed well against a top team. A repeat upset was not to be however.
Greg Lawr scored both North Halton majors and Andy Tyrrell added the conversions. For the Smokers, Bruce Cartwright caught two touchdowns and Jack Butler converted each one. Doug Thompson booted a field goal and Chris Sargent capped the Smoker scoring with a fourth quarter major.

CORRIGAN vs M AND M PRO SPORTS
The play of M and M's offense resembled the hilarious performance of Rick Moranis as a bumbling wimp in Ghostbusters. Only the sure foot of Ken Lockwood saved them from total disgrace. He kicked a second quarter field goal.

The Corrigan offense was not much better in the first half, scoring only a single touchdown. That one was by quarterback John Larose. Kevin Harrison converted. The seven points were all that Corrigan needed to win, but they padded their win in the second half with touchdowns by the Ferguson brothers, Brent and Brad. Harrison was superb for the winners, kicking a field goal and adding three more singles.

NORVAL vs FOBERT
A game with Norval was just the tonic Foberts needed to break their losing streak. Dave McCarthy played a strong game for Foberts, scoring two touchdowns and adding an interception on defense. Gerry Martyniuk, Keith Peacock and Frank Bruno also had touchdowns for Foberts. Bruno chipped in with three converts.

DAIRY QUEEN vs LONGHORNS
Dairy Queen held a 10 to six lead at the half on a Howie Hulme major converted by Jeff Lockwood. Lockwood also kicked a field goal. Wayne Denmore scored the Longhorn touchdown. Ron Lunn increased the Dairy Queen lead in the third quarter with a touchdown. Ron Lunn increased the Dairy Queen lead in the third quarter with a touchdown. Again Lockwood converted. The Longhorns came alive in the fourth quarter as Paul McCracken went into the Dairy Queen and zone for six points. Paul Allison tallied for a two-point conversion.

The Longhorns came within a breath of winning on a late drive, but Howie Hulme saved the day for the Dairy Queen team when he stepped in front of a Longhorn pass.

GREEKS vs I.A.S.
The return of Rick Baldwin put the Greek locomotive back on track.
Baldwin struck Paul Wilson early for six and James Allan pulled in another touchdown. Mark Russell picked up a two-point conversion on that one, as the first half ended. I.A.S., sporting the smallest offense in the league to date, could only muster a field goal by Doug Pemberton.

The second half was all Greek. Baldwin carried the ball himself for six and Russell and Linus Staussis added two more majors.

Mets record T-ball win

The Mets held off a last inning rally by the Angels to record a 31-30 win in Georgetown Baseball Association T-Ball action last week.

The Mets made outstanding double plays by Darryl Williams and Geoffrey Beuparient. Timely hits were made by Pete Mashinter, Jennifer Hunter and Simon Fraser.

Doubles by Jeremy Williams and Karen Hannah featured solid hitting by the Angels. Tracey Green and Andrea Lebannister fielded well. Homers in the third inning by Warren Donnell, Karen Hannah, Mark Jennings and a grand slam by David Butler made the game very exciting.

Choice Air Cubs 32
Royal Canadian Legion Reds 28

Cubs coaches led by Don Peacock had to keep the players sharp to hold off the Reds. Donny Butler had a couple of homers and a triple. Gary McNiven had a homer also. Jeff Pringle had a triple, Trisha Himenski had a double and Marc Boucher made his usual outstanding contribution.

Kim Wiltshire played super for the Reds. Other players getting extra base hits were Mark Burns, Ryan Martin, Jay Duval, Jason Lesca and Mark Mitchell.

In Minor Tyke baseball, West Insurance White Sox edged Thruway Muffler Rangers 11-10.

The White Sox started slowly but came on in the fourth and fifth innings to pull out a come-from-behind win over the tough Rangers.

White Sox loaded the bases in the second on a single by Ryan Hay, a double by Jenny Lorito, a walk to Paul Ingram. The Rangers bailed themselves out of this jam with excellent pitching as the White Sox stranded all three runners.

The Rangers played an excellent game leading until the final inning. Strong hitting by Kristen Robertson and Jim Kavanaugh and an aggressive defense kept the Rangers ahead of the White Sox for most of the game. Robbie Wands, Ryan Hutchins and Steve Walsh were the Rangers' outstanding players. In the third inning with the White Sox threatening, Joey Robichaud picked off a white Sox runner to end the inning.

Pronto Muller 9
Armstrong Insurance Red Sox 8

The Pirates came from behind to pull out a victory in the final inning. Jamie Stevenson was the game's outstanding player. He pitched two innings and caught an inning-ending fly ball. Charlie Snook lead off the second inning with a single, followed by David McEachern. Nicole Inge got on base, went three-for-three and made a key defensive play as she alantly tagged a Red Sox player as he ran from first to second. With the tying run on first and the winning run at the plate with two out, Stevenson struck the batter out to win the game for the Pirates.

Strong pitching by Shawn Kelman and Grant Goodfellow handcuffed the Pirates for three of the game's five innings. Michael Piers started off the first inning with a single. Jim Whorley crashed out a triple in the fourth inning that should have been a home run had it not been for an alert Pirates defense. Goodfellow got the game's only homer in the fifth

BASEBALL BEAUTIES

Anything a man can do, a woman can do better, right? After a complaint was lodged in Georgetown Industrial Slow-pitch League against Kiwanis Club for not fielding the regulation number of female players, Kiwanis members Phillip (Phyllis) Jones, kneeling, of J.S. Jones and Son Funeral Home, and David (Mom) Ashbee, of Helson, Kogan and Ashby, successfully dragged themselves through the game undetected against North Halton Golf and Country Club for six innings. Kiwanis won the game by a run.

Villa wins 3-0

Led by the superb goaltending of Simon Willis, Varian Vikings defeated Acton Villa "A" 3-0 last week in Mens Intercountry Soccer League play. The shutout was Simon's third in eight games this year.

Alcott Ladies 'A' team finds opponents tough

The Gordon Alcott Ladies "A" tennis team did not have good luck in their two Intercountry Tennis matches last week.

They dropped three of four matches against Brampton, with the team of Pat Harris and Kay King recording the win. Isla Allison and Linda Rice won their opening set, but dropped their final two, as did Pam Kennedy and Marilyn Sergentson. Audrey Houston and Brenda Sissett lost their match, but the scores were 6-7, 7-6, 6-7.

Against Swansea of Toronto, the team of Sergentson and Francis Brown recorded the win. King and Linda Rice along with Houston and Kennedy were defeated in straight sets. Allison and Sissett won their first game, but lost their next two.

In Intercountry Mixed "C" competition, the Gordon Alcott team found success a little easier to come by.

The team captured all six games against Regency Rackets. Bob Houston and Larry Sissett won their match in straight sets while Peter Hemming and Keith King needed three games to win their match. Paul Mastalerz and John Rice won in straight sets.

The team of John Daitison and Kay King won their mixed doubles match in straight sets as did the doubles combination of Isla Allison and Ann Kennedy.
The mixed-competition against Malton was rained out and rescheduled.

Teams keep pace

By BOB McCANDLESS
Herald Correspondent
Kirby's Bluebirds and Bracken's Restaurant both picked up victories to stay tied atop the Georgetown Industrial Fastball League standings.

Bluebirds hammered Allison's Cornhuskers 11-2. Dick Spear claimed the win and Kevin Frank was saddled with the loss. Both pitchers had two-run homers.

Bracken's downed Caledon Ski Club 4-3 to keep pace with the Bluebirds.

Mark Hancock was the winning pitcher and Terry Pegg was the loser. Moe Leeking was two-for-three at the plate with two runs batted in for the winners.

M and M Pro Sports split their two games, downing Debonair Developments 7-5 before losing to Allison's by the same score.

In their win, M and M scored all seven runs in the third inning as Marty Zilio was the winning pitcher.

Allison's Cornhuskers scored two runs in the bottom of the seventh inning to defeat M and M 3-2. Mike McMenemy drove in the winning run, singling through a draw-in infield. Joe McCarthy, who split the pitching duties with Marty Zilio, suffered the loss. Kevin Frank gained credit for the win. Dave Doucette homered in a losing cause for M and M.
