

Park Lincoln catcher Ryan Wilson tries to put the tag on SOB base runner Rick Andrews. The tag came too late, and thus Andrews scored. The run ended up making a difference as SOB edged the Lincoln squad 11-10 to take top honors in the "B" Division final of the Halton Hills Slopitch League's tournament played Sunday at the Fairgrounds.

GFFL action this week

D.Q. troubles start again

By DON SCALLEN
 Herald Correspondent
 Dramatic endings and a lot of scoring kept Georgetown Men's Flag Football League fans satisfied this week. Corrigan blew away Dairy Queen 34-15, the Greeks handed Smoke Shop their first loss 39-18, Longhorns ambushed North Halton Sports 19-8, and M and M Pro Sports beat Roberts 21-15 and IAS squeaked by Norval 20-19.

Corrigans vs Dairy Queen
 The patented DQ collapse has occurred. Last year they smashed their opponents with remarkable ease, until they came against the Greeks in mid-season. After being thrashed by the boys in blue they were never the same. Last week the Greeks did the trick again and this week Corrigan continued the Dairy Queen humiliation.

The Greeks shared the wealth with Mark Russell, John Karolidis and Linus Stauslis scoring majors. Steve Peace and Karolidis had two-pointers and James Allan added a single. That was only for the first three quarters. In the fourth the Greeks exploded for 16 unanswered points. Rick Baldwin and Mike Michm scored touchdowns and Paul Wilson and Peace added two-point conversions.

down but insisted on kicking the point after.

IAS vs Norval
 An absolute heart-breaker for the boys from Norval. IAS won on the final down of the game with a spectacular, but controversial play.

They astonished football fans with an original bit of dangle that gave them a single point and the game. Quarterback Jim Taggart passed to Doug Pemberton and Pemberton kicked the ball into the Norval end zone. Norval was unable to run the ball out, and IAS was awarded the all important single point.

Norval has lodged a protest after the game, asking league officials to examine the referee's ruling on this play.

M and M Sports vs Roberts
 M and M escaped by the skin of their teeth in this one. Roberts almost won the game on a last play touchdown attempt.
