Georgetown Junior Eagles pitcher Andrew Braun narrowly misses the tag on an Oakville runner. The umpire calls the Oakville runner safe. Braun pitched well in the game played Saturday at the Fairgrounds. He struck out 10, but his mates did not help his cause any by committing 11 errors. As a result, the Eagles dropped an 8-2 decision to the Oakville team. (Herald photo)

Effort not enough

Sean Guistini hit two doubles and pitched an inning, but it was not enough as Astros dropped an 11-10 decision to Giants in Georgetown Baseball Association Boys Major Tyke action.
 Derek Ellard, Brent McIntyre and Danny Koroseil pitched for Astros. Sean McCortney had a homer also for Astros.
 In another game between the two, Giants recorded another win by the identical score. Jason Basteard had two doubles while Adam Hills had two triples and shared pitching duties with Mike Mowat.

 Guistini, McIntyre, Koroseil and Ellard all pitched as Astros tied Expos 9-9. McCortney hit a three-run homer. Jimmy Lawrence had two homers, two triples as Expos edged Mariners 9-8.
 Randy Barrett had a homer for the winners while Jason Barrett and Adam Edwards added triples.

 John Butler was the outstanding player as Mariners edged Royals 8-7. Jim Rutherford pitched for the win. Royals only had seven players for the game.
 Adam Hagen pitched, and Butler was the star at the plate, but Mariners dropped a close 9-8 decision to Expos.
 Butler had a homer for Mariners.

Minor team rolls on North Halton Sports Minor Peeeweas are on a roll, winning two of their last three league games. In their 9-3 win over Streetsville, Gord Burke went the distance on the mound and Kevin Usher collected three hits. Mark Lorito had two hits while singles went to Scott Van de Valk, Wes McCaulea, Shane Oldrieve, Andy Pearce, Eddie Doyle, Burje and Jason Banneville. However, the winning feeling was short-lived as Georgetown dropped a 5-0 decision to Burlington. The game was close through five innings as Burlington had a 1-0 lead. But in the bottom of the fifth a few errors allowed three runs to score.

 Andy Pearce had a single and triple for North Halton white Lorito had a double. McCauley and Mike Elroy had singles. Statistics were not available for North Halton's 9-3 win over Streetsville. The team will play Streetsville and Burlington to round out league play and will travel to London to play in a tournament there.

Errors contribute to Eagles thumping

Georgetown Junior Eagles are fast becoming their own worst enemy. The Halton County Junior Baseball League team committed 11 errors as they dropped an 8-2 decision to Oakville in a game played Saturday at the Fairgrounds. Andrew Braun was tagged with the loss, while fanning 10. Georgetown scored their only runs of the game in the sixth inning. Paul Blackmore singled and stole second. Paul Guistini's single brought Blackmore home. Kevin Hughes then singled, moving Guistini to third. Guistini scored on an Oakville pitcher's balk.

Hockey begins Sept. 8

Tryouts for the Georgetown Minor Hockey Association (GMHA) will be held September 8, according to an association executive member.
 GMHA vice-president Wayne Pries said registration for the 1984-85 season will also be held at that time. He also said there are still openings for coaches at the rep level. Pries said tryouts are later than usual because of a lack of turnout for tryouts held during the Labor Day weekend.

Pries also said the GMHA will be involved in the Georgetown Fall Fair in September. But nothing has been finalized as to what the GMHA will hold.

HALTON HILLS HERALD ATHLETE OF THE MONTH (For July 1984)

Doreen Uranick, 18, of Acton is the Herald's Athlete of the Month for July. She finished second in the 800 metre race at the Canadian Junior Track and Field Championships held in Edmonton.
