Pitching key element in win

Our League has their annual tournament on August 10, 11 and 12 so ladies don't forget to invite your families and friends to come down to the ball park for a good weekend. We have our coaches playing the local merchants on the Friday evening, so come down and see if they play as good as they try to teach us. There will be refreshments available all weekend and we have also booked the Playmobile for the youngsters.

Red Runners 7
Gold Stars 5

The Runners gave a full team effort backed by good pitching by Mary Johnston and Laurie Henson plus a super triple by Robin Hillock to grab the win from the Stars who played a good game by the entire team along with a good long catch by Susan Aiken.

Knight Riders 14
Pink Panthers 5

Even with two great catches at shortstop by Kay King and a good team effort the Panthers couldn't catch the hard hitting Riders. Linda Anderson had a good all round game along with great offensive power by Ruthanne Wilkinson.

Burgundy Brats 13
Green Giants 11

Despite the loss the Giants entire team played hard. Brenda Cole sparkled in field and at the plate. With the Dynamic Duo of Yvonne and Diane Corbett playing their kusul strong game. The Brats had it all together backed by great hitting by Penny Butterworth, Debbie Knoepfli and Phyllis Mercier.

Turquoise Tornadoes 33
Blue Nuns 15

The Tornadoes whirled around the bases with good hits by Jan Walker, Jeanie David, Joyce Hutchins, Brenda Hamilton and Mary Lynn Hillier. Irene

Little made two great catches in left field and

Linda Pells made a double at second. The
