

CVCA hires three staff

Three new employees have joined the ranks of the Credit Valley Conservation Authority.

The CVCA has hired Ken Owen as manager, land resources, Geza Gaspardy as biologist and Marnie Olson as conservation education officer.

Mr. Ken Owen is replacing Harry Watson who retired after 14 years with the CVCA. Mr. Owen will be responsible for conservation areas development and operations, forest conservation areas, private land conservation services programs and property management for the Authority.

As biologist, Geza Gaspardy will be responsible for all the Authority's fisheries, wildlife and water quality programs. Geza received his Bachelor of Science in fisheries and wildlife biology from the University of Guelph.

Marnie Olson, conservation education officer, will be responsible for the development and implementation of the Authority's education program. Ms. Olson replaces George Roberts who recently retired after eight years with the CVCA.

KEN OWEN

Bring the whole family and join the interpreters at the Terra Cotta Conservation Area, Saturday, August 18, 7:30 p.m. for an evening of lore and stories about the Indians who once lived in this area. This program is presented by the Credit Valley Conservation Authority.

You'll also discover how Canada's first inhabitants lived in this new land.

Admission into the Area is $4 per vehicle. Terra Cotta Conservation Area is located on Winston Churchill Boulevard, just 2 km north of the Village of Terra Cotta.
