Floral length gown with beaded head piece

Herald Special

July 28 Diane Marie Marshall of Georgetown and Kevin Joseph Moore of Hamilton were united in marriage at Knox Presbyterian Church, Georgetown.

In the double ring ceremony, Rev. P. Barrow conducted the service while Adrian Hobart was the organist. Diane's father Gordon Marshall gave the bride away.

Diane is the daughter of Gordon and Joyce Marshall. She was wearing a white floor length gown accented by lace with beaded bodice with a full train. The veil had a beaded head piece with a waist length veil. The bride carried a bouquet of real red roses and white carnations.

The groom Kevin Moore is the son of Stan Moore and Mrs. Barbara Cook. Kevin was dressed in a three piece white tuxedo with tails. He wore a red rose boutonniere.

The Matron of Honor was Connie Moore, a best friend of the bride from Calgary. The two bridesmaids were Sandra Marshall, the bride's sister and Susan Finch the groom's sister from Hamilton. The two flowergirls were Carrie and Paula Walsh who are nieces of the bride.

The Matron of Honor and bridesmaids wore floor length bright pink gowns with matching lace capes.

Flowergirls wore similar floor length soft pink gowns. Bouquets consisted of real pink carnations and white miniature mums with burgundy tiger lilies.

The best man was James Dagenais of Hamilton who is the groom's best friend. His ushers were Dave Hill from Hamilton and Mike Finch of Hamilton who is the groom's brother-in-law. The best man and ushers were dressed in three piece light grey tuxedos, wearing pink boutonnieres.

The reception was at the Elk's Lodge in Georgetown. The bride's mother wore an aqua blue dress with white access and a white orchid.

The groom's mother wore a dove grey dress with pink access and a white orchid.

The bride's going-away outfit consisted of a bright red dress with a white jacket and a bouquet of pink sweetheart roses.

The couple honeymooned in the Pocono Mountains in Pennsylvania. They will be living in Burlington.

Showers were given by: Vi, Karen and Kim Herrington of Georgetown, Bernice Capps and Dolores Young of Brampton, Sandra Marshall and Cheryl Kelman of Georgetown, Barbara Cook and Susan Finch of Beamsville and Hamilton, Bev. Rowe of Burlington.

A special presentation was given to the bride from her fellow employees at Inglis Ltd.

KEVIN MOORE AND DIANE MARSHALL (seen above) were united in marriage July 28 in Georgetown at Knox Presbyterian Church.
