

Get a Tanfastic Tan

The Tanning Centre
120 Mill St.
877-9766

FAMILY SECTION

the HERALD
Home Newspaper of Halton Hills - Established 1885

CANADA'S LARGEST LEATHER GOODS STORE

the olde Hide House

GDHS awards

Pascal math winners

Who are some of the top math whiz kids at Georgetown District High School? According to the Pascal Math Contest results for Grade 9 students, there were eight students who received certificates of distinction for placing in the top 10 per cent of all contestants in Canada.

The students were: Eric Shynal, Charlie Gibbs, Michael Treffry, Rona Yardley, Jeff Amato, Nina Fear, Bobby Sun and Martin Barnard.

Terry Dryden and Glenn Murdoch received certificates of merit while team certificates went to Eric Shynal, Charlie Gibbs, and Michael Treffry.

The medal for the top student in the school went to Eric Shynal.

Elzevir creativity award

At an assembly last week at Georgetown District High School students were presented with an award for their creativity in the production of the volume of writings entitled Elzevir.

The Elzevir editors were: Christian Book, Amy Hamilton, Cathy yons, Jennifer McLean and Jane Mitchell.

Two winners of the Halton County Poetry contest were Tom Forbes and Jeff Janssen.

Top students: accounting

There were four students from Georgetown District High School who were awarded the Goebelle Wagner and MacAdam Accounting Award at assemblies held last week.

In Grade 10 Stephanie Wagstaffe received the award while the Grade 11 winner was Nancy Wallace.

Two students tied for the Grade 12 prize: Lisa Pleace and Wendy Schmidt.

Proficiency recipients

Standard Products of Georgetown were the sponsors of the proficiency awards given out to the top girl and boy students last week.

From Georgetown District High School Jim Clark and Tanya Morrow were the winners for Grade 9. Peter Kovacs and Stephanie Wagstaffe shared honors in Grade 10. Jeff Janssen and Heather Langdon were the top Grade 11 students.

Nancy Wallace won the Standard Products business award for a year 3 student.

Academic decathlon

It's a decathlon of a different type. Grade 12 students completed in an academic decathlon last year and five students from Georgetown District High School distinguished themselves. Vicki Champ, Wendy Schmidt, Jeff Noyles, Phil Carriers and David Banks were all part of the GDHS Decathlon Team. David Banks was particularly outstanding for his six gold medal wins.

Journalism leaders

The Georgetown District High School were treated to their own newspaper last year, thanks to the writing and organizational abilities of three students. The Georgetown Leader newspaper was staffed by Danney Russell, Susan Blackmore and Nita Millesse who all received awards for their efforts last week at GDHS.

Top math man

Brian Marshall was the top Grade 10 student according to the Cayley Math Contest. He received a medal for that achievement and a certificate of distinction for rating in the top 10 per cent of all Canadian math students.

A team certificate went to Brian Marshall, Laura Groskorth and Linda Wenham. A certificate of merit was presented to Linda Wenham and Laura Groskorth for being within the top 25 per cent of Canadian students.

Fermat math contest

Six students received a certificate of merit for their scores in the Fermat Math Contest at an assembly last week for Georgetown District High School students.

Tom Shannon, Scott Pundsack, John Marchant, Carl Johnston, Johanna Delroy and David received the certificates.

Certificates of distinction went to Jeff Janssen and Rebecca Lovelace. Team certificates were awarded to Jeff Janssen, Rebecca Lovelace and Tom Shannon. The first place medal went to Jeff Janssen.

First place medal

David Banks, a Georgetown District High School student was awarded a first place medal by his school for his first place standing at GDHS for the Euclid Math Contest.

A certificate of merit went to Glenn Farrow, Peter Belshaw, Christian Book and Vicki Champ. David Banks also received a certificate of distinction. He and Vicki Champ and Glenn Farrow also claimed a team certificate.

Grade 9 achievers

The following Grade 9 students were awarded for their high standing in a subject area at an assembly last week at Georgetown District High School.

Mike Treffry won the Math award while Tanya Hancock attained the highest mark in English. Cindy Murnaghan accepted the Family Studies prize while Joanna McTaggart won the Music award.

In Art the top student was Lorne Ho and in Science the winner was Jim Clark. Social Science was won by Charlie Gibbs while the Business award was accepted by Martin Barnard.

Gaby Nagel took the Moderns award and Richard Percival accepted the Tech Package award. Tanya Morrow received the Tech award. In Physical Education Jim Manning and Shannon Snyder shared the honors.

Grade 10 achievers

The following Grade 10 students were awarded for their high standing in a subject area at an assembly last week at Georgetown District High School.

Jennifer Henwood won the Math award while Peter Kovacs took the English prize. Anita Webb received the Family Studies award and Suzanne Parker picked up the Music honors.

Robin Symmes was judged the best in Art while Kelly Brown received honors for Science. In Social Science Barry Yerxa was awarded while Stephanie Wagstaffe won the business prize.

Liz Jackson was judged tops in Moderns while Dramatic Arts went to Trish Kellington. The Tech award went to Greg Mackenzie. Jon Hammer and Jenny Lusby shared the Physical Education award.

Tearful good-byes at GDHS commencement

The Grade 12 subject award winners at Georgetown District High School are (front row, left to right) Mellissa Anderson, Lisa Pleace, Wendy Schmidt, Connie Domingos, (back row) Diana Collett, Christian Book, Kevin Powers and Leah Smeaton.

The Grade 11 subject award winners at Georgetown District High School are (front row, left to right) Julie Nipper, Irene Marlnkl, Tom Gross, Scott Pundsack, Greg Hammond, (back row) Ken Whatmough, Karen Reynolds, Nancy Wallace, Eileen Corrigan, Tom Shannon and Brian Remes.

Subject award winners for Grade 9 at Georgetown District High School were (front row, left to right) Jenni Lusby, Phys-ed, Jennifer Henwood, Math, Stephanie Wagstaffe, top girl student and Standard Product Business award, Anita Webb, Family Studies, (middle row) Greg Mackenzie, Technical, Lisabeth Jackson, French, Suzanne Parker, Music, Kelly Brown, Biology, (top row) Jon Hammer, Phys-ed, Barry Yerxa, Social Science, Pete Kovacs, English and top male student.

Top students in the Cayley Math Contest from Georgetown District High School were (left to right) Laura Groskorth, Linda Wenham and Brian Marshall.

The students in this picture are all subject and special award winners from the Friday night Commencement exercise at Georgetown District High School. For a complete list of the students receiving awards, check The Herald for a listing in the form of a story.

Students who attained 80 per cent or better in Grade 13 for 1983-84 are: Janine Baker, James Becker, Marc Bourassa, Paul Burroughs, Peter Carson, Cheralyn Corry, Russell Curia, Patrick Del Guidice, Timothy Egan, Michele Fisher, Terri Hammond, Timothy Hancock, Michael Harford, Robert Inglis, Susan Jackson, Paul Long, Stephen Lukas, Linh Ma, Ton Ma, Anne MacDonald, Susan Masson, Shawn Mau, Barbara McKeeman, Thomas McMenemy, Matthijs Millenaar, Jane Mitchell, Peter Moeschler, Brenda Morrow, Linda Ole, Jennifer Pepper, Joanne Powell, Elinor Reid, Stephen Roach, Julia Smedema, Kenneth Stanley, Jeffrey Streutker, Deborah Sunucks, Michelle Sybersma, Lisa Tancoo, Lisa Tobin, Phillip Wickens, Lisa Woolgar.

The road to success

Friday night at Georgetown District High School, students, family members and teachers gathered for 1984 Commencement.

During the evening the Grade 12 and 13 students received their high school diplomas. Principal Don Baker spoke to the graduates about the road to success. He said he remembers six qualities in all of the people who have helped him through the years.

The qualities are attitude, confidence, communication, enthusiasm, non-judgemental and trustworthiness. The road to helping yourself succeed is to help others succeed, he said.

A lengthy list of recipients received awards and certificates from many different sponsors from the school and community.

Below are a list of the students receiving special recognition:

HONOUR GRADUATION AWARDS:
Ontario Scholarships are given by the Ministry of Education to each student who obtains an aggregate of at least 800 marks in any six approved Honour Graduation Level courses.
Janine Baker, James Becker, Marc Bourassa, Paul Burroughs, Peter Carson, Cheralyn Corry, Russell Curia, Patrick Del Guidice, Timothy Egan, Michele Fisher, Terri Hammond, Timothy Hancock, Michael Harford, Robert Inglis, Susan Jackson, Paul Long, Stephen Lukas, Linh Ma, Ton Ma, Anne MacDonald, Susan Masson, Shawn Mau, Barbara McKeeman, Thomas McMenemy, Matthijs Millenaar.

Hyman Silver and are awarded to two honour graduates for general proficiency: Jeffrey Streutker, Shawn Mau.

The Amy Pearce Award is given by the Rotary Annex of Georgetown to an honour graduate for general proficiency: Paul Long.

The J.L. Lambert Proficiency Award is given to the student obtaining high standing in Grade 13: Peter Moeschler.

The University Women's Club of Georgetown Award - top Year 4 female student who has shown leadership in school and community activities and who is continuing her education in a technical field: Karen Kestelof.

Oscar Robb Plaque - awarded to the year four student who has obtained the highest overall standing in a technical program involving a minimum of two

Medal winners at Georgetown District High School for top marks were (front row, left to right) Sharon Cowling, Janet Friskney, Heather Langdon, (back row) Jeff Janssen, Dave Banks and Vicki Champ.

Standard Products Awards - Technical Award - awarded to the year four student who has obtained the highest overall standing in a technical program involving a minimum of two technical credits: Karen Kestelof. Music Award - to be presented to the student who has made a significant contribution through music during the year: Paul Prensault. Business Education Award - awarded to a year three student for proficiency in business education: Nancy Wallace. Award to a graduating student for proficiency in business education. Program of study to include two senior business credits: Vicki Champ.

The Faculty of Georgetown District High School Scholarship is given to a student graduate who after completing four years of secondary education, is continuing to higher education: Vicki Champ.

The Georgetown Herald Award is given to the student obtaining the highest standard at the end of four years in a program majoring in commercial subjects and who is now employed: Cheryl Huberford.

The Peter Armstrong Memorial Award is an annual award presented to a year four graduate who has made the most progress in a program majoring in technical subjects: Paul Prensault.

The Rotary Club Awards - Technical Awards - Year Three Technical Award is presented to the student with the highest overall proficiency after three years of study in a program involving a minimum of two technical credits: Scott Pundsack.

Year Four Technical Award - is presented to a student for outstanding proficiency in technical education. The program of study to include two senior credits: Charles Bird, The Kenneth H. Harrison Memorial Music Award - presented to the student who has displayed outstanding musical development and performance in Grade 12 or Grade 13 to finance the student's attendance at a summer music camp: Diana Collett.

Rotary Club Achievement Award - awarded to a graduating student who has demonstrated outstanding perseverance in gaining significant scholastic achievement: Agnes Kavanagh.

The Maurice Charles Hillock memorial Award - is given to the student who after four years of study has achieved the highest proficiency in French: Carol Johnson, Wendy Schmidt.

Michael J. Purlong Award - given to a graduate of Grade 12 for general proficiency and citizenship: David Banks.

United Auto Workers Local 1421 Mathematics and Science Award - to be presented to a year four graduate for proficiency in mathematics and science: David Banks. Communications Award - to be presented to a year four graduate for proficiency in communication: Christopher Langley, Social Science Award - to be presented to a year four graduate for proficiency in two senior social science credits: Jennifer McLean.

OTHER AWARDS:
The Honour Board of Education Proficiency Award - Year 4 graduate (Grade 12):