

Lynn Ferguson tries our Herald quiz

Lynn Ferguson wouldn't win any prizes in a Trivia Pursuit contest, but the Mac's Milk owner on Mountview Road South did well in The Herald's weekly quiz contest.

Mr. Ferguson scored seven correct answers out of 10. We gave him the benefit of the doubt on judging the seating capacity of John Elliott Theatre - he came within 2 seats of guessing the correct number.

Mr. Ferguson was born in Wingham, Ontario and he went to high school there.

He attended Ridgetown Agricultural School and worked for United Co-op from 1966-1970 when he came to Georgetown.

Now living in Glen Williams, Mr. Ferguson is active in the Masonic Lodge and he keeps a Honda 750cc motorcycle as a hobby. He is married to Karen and they have two daughters: Krista, 8 and Jan, 12.

Try your hand at our quiz and see if you can beat Mr. Ferguson's score.

Help for firms

Responding to the need to help businesses market their product is a new company in the Halton-Peel area called Rush Media and Marketing Inc.

The company was formed by Curtis Rush, a lecturer and writer-editor with the Toronto Star and several business publications. "I wanted to form a team of experts in the marketing and public relations areas who could help businesses improve without overloading their budgets," Mr. Rush said.

Rush Media and Marketing Inc. is located on 466 Vanier Drive in Milton.

UNICEF could be saving 20,000 children

There are children around the world who struggle every day just to survive. The coins we put into UNICEF collection boxes on Halloween will mean clean water, nutritious food, health care and basic education to these children.
