

PPRL waits for Alan Pope

Cheltenham residents opposed to the relocation of Brampton Brick Ltd. in their area are still waiting to hear from Ontario natural resources minister Allan Pope. Members of the Preservation of Rural Living (PPRL) met Mr. Pope Sept. 12 to explain their opposition to the relocation but they still haven't received an answer. "We sent a letter to Mr. Pope this week asking when we can expect to hear from him," said PPRL spokesman Shelley Itahn last week. Since late 1983, PPRL members have sought meetings with Mr. Pope and other Ontario government officials.

Brampton Brick has asked Caledon town council to rezone 99 hectares (245 acres) from open space to extractive industrial. PPRL members have argued approval of the application would betray the intent of Caledon's official plan. —Courtesy Brampton Times

The handicap of brilliance

"The Handicap of Brilliance" will be explored at the annual general meeting of the Halton Association for Bright Children Nov. 5 at 8 p.m. at Milton District High School, 396 Williams, Milton. Guest speaker is George Robb, M.A.,

M.Ed., an internationally respected authority on education for gifted children. The BBC film "The Gifted Child" which shows Mr. Robb working with children will be screened. Call 877-2887 for further information.

For winter

Region's closure policy

Ah, for a snowstorm, that's what regional staff will be wishing for this winter. During severe winter weather, the region's Chief Administrative Officer (CAO) can send everybody home early and close the administration offices for the day. That way staff can reach home during daylight and before the storm gets worse.

A closure policy for adverse winter weather conditions is to be approved by regional councillors in November.
