Poppy's 'AA' pee-wees tournament finalists

Participating at the Woodstock Legion 10th Anniversary Pee-wee Tournament over the weekend, Poppy's "AA" Major Pee-wees returned home with finalists honors, losing the championship game to last year's arch-rival, Provincial Champs, Markham 3-1. holding a 2-0 edge over Poppy's. Taking advantage of Bolton penalties in the third frame, Wes McCauley's two goals tied the game. Jim English and Kevin Usher earned assists on one McCauley marker. Jim English counted on an unassisted effort again while Bolton was short handed to notch the game winner and Rod Pasma - Mark Minnich passes allowed Dale McNiven to score goal four into an empty Bolton net.
