

FLYING HIGH

Everyone enjoys a party, but especially when you've got the good-natured Rotary Club members waiting on you. Last Monday night at the Holy Cross Auditorium, seniors were treated to a dinner courtesy of the Rotary members. Here, Miss Hope Keenan and Mr. Jack Colter are served by club members Howard Briggs, chairman of the dinner, and David Page.

NORVAL - Norval W.I. held their November 1 meeting at the home of Gisele Malchin last Thursday with vice president Noreen Van Leeuwen chairing the meeting.

included a report on the recent dessert luncheon. An old fashioned dance is to be held by the Halton District W.I. in Brookville Hall in Campbellville Nov. 30. The first rug braiding course is at Noreen Van Leeuwen's Nov. 13 at 7 o'clock. A report by Dorothy McLean on the area convention indicated a film is available from the University of Guelph on Farming "When you and I were young." Roll Call: bring a food label and read the ingredients, proved interesting.

Convenors of Family and Consumer Affairs, Gisele Malchin and Lils Dahnert read an article on "nutrition is a fascination subject" with the old adage an apple a day keeps the doctor away or a brisk walk every day keeps you in shape.

Rita Deenik was presented with a bouquet of carnations for balancing on one foot the longest. Lunch was served by Lilla Smith and Jean May. The next meeting is at Marguerite Hunter's and is changed to Wed. Dec. 5 at 8 p.m.

Good samaritan

BALLINAFAD - I heard of a nice gesture recently that one of our residents does. He visits the senior shut-ins and others who enjoy reading, with books from the Georgetown library, and returns them.

If Ballinafad gave an award for the Citizen of the Year, Norm Elson should be among the top contenders. His efforts are very much appreciated.

Sympathy extended

By WINIFRED SMITH
Herald Correspondent
BALLINAFAD - We extend sympathy to the many relatives who live in the community who mourn the loss of Alleen Cole of Georgetown, whose death occurred last week. Mrs. Madill is progressing favourably at her home after recent surgery.

Hallowe'en prizes

By WINIFRED SMITH
Herald Correspondent
BALLINAFAD - The ghosts, goblins, witches and other characters were out ahead of Hallowe'en Saturday night at the Community Centre when they attended a dance. There were prizes given for the different categories.

Language arts award

Award of Merit honors will be bestowed upon a lucky winner at this year's Language Arts Conference at Wilfrid Laurier University in Kitchener Nov. 2. The new award was instigated by members of the organizing committee of the Language Arts Conference which began in 1977. Georgetown teacher Tom Ramautarsingh is a member of the conference committee.

Legion lines

There are still a few tickets available for the Remembrance Day Dinner and Dance Nov. 10 at 7 p.m. They may be picked up personally from the Stewards at $4 each.

This is Poppy Week and any assistance will be much appreciated by Harry Brown (473-1157). The deadline date is drawing near for all members to submit the names of their children (10 years of age or under) in the box supplied in the Branch. If no name there will be no gift for the child at the Christmas Party Dec. 13.

Tickets for the Grey Cup on a large TV screen on Nov. 18 are still available from the Stewards at $5 each.
