Curling team close second in bonspiel

A business women's team recently participated in a bonspiel in Guelph. Skip Joan Trimble, vice Marg Simpson, second Marg O'Flaherty, and lead Betty Cox won their three games and were one point short of the trophy and finished second overall. Nicely done.

The Glad Robinson was held Saturday, an annual event for the ladies. Presented with the top honor of the day and the trophy was the team of Alice Frazer, Lena Burns, Enid Muir and Sue Evans.

Second spot went to Peggy Darmody, June Russell, Mary Wand and Irene McIntosh.

Third was the team of Joan Trimble, Ellen Burns, Lois Massey and Polly McDonald.

Travelling this week will be Joan Shapcott and Shirley McDermot, who both will be taking teams to a two-day spiel in Niagara.

The Bob Fedosa rink will be in Whitby this weekend trying to improve upon their poor showing at Sarnia last week.

Al Dean and Bob Fedosa will be playing down at the club the next two Monday nights (26th and 3rd). The Dean team will be challenging the Fedosa rink for the opportunity to represent the North Halton Club for the men's district play-downs Dec. 14-16 in Chinguacousy.

HILLSBURGH - Hillsburgh Royals scored four goals in the opening five minutes of their game Saturday with Mil-verton, and coasted to a 12-1 win at the Hillsburgh Community Centre in Central Ontario Hockey Association Intermediate "C" play.

Bantams rack up wins

M and M Pro Sports "AA" Major Bantams racked up two more wins this week with solid, disciplined hockey against Chinguacousy and Streetsville.

The Chinguacousy game produced excellent defensive work by David Chaiten, Davin Ciglen, Chris Stoddart and Pat McCarthy. Georgetown scored the lone goal of the first period as Terry Murphy netted the marker with the assists going to David Harris and Don Cruise.

Both teams scored in the second frame, with Murphy scoring again for the locals. The Georgetown team owned the final period, scoring three times. Harris, Frank Katsilieris and Danny Lane handled the scoring with assists going to Cruise, Harris, Murphy, Jeff Brady and Stoddart, to make the score 5-3 for Georgetown.

Georgetown beat Streetsville 0-2 as Stephen Eastwood was solid in goal. Alain Thibault opened the scoring for Georgetown from a pass by Ken Langdon and Jason Arnold. Streetsville scored two goals seven seconds apart but Georgetown then responded with five goals of their own.

Harris, Langdon, Trevor Harkley, Arnold and Cruise scored the goals with assists going to Arnold, Murphy and Langdon with two each. Harris and Ciglen had other assists.

and includes a winning streak of five wins. The line of Andy Broadbent, Mike McMenemy and Chris Peavoy led the Hillsburgh attack. McMenemy had the hat-trick and three assists while Peavoy connected for a goal and four assists. Broadbent had two assists. Paul Fraser and Karl Meyer had two goals each while Doug Pemberton and John Barnes had single goals to round out the Royals' scoring.

Steve Cesar's shutout bid was broken with just over a minute remaining in the game when Milverton's Craig Kilton beat the Royals' net-minder with a deflection. Cesar made five spectacular saves throughout the game.

Hillsburgh now plays three straight games on the road before returning home to face Palmerston 81's Dec. 8.

Monday the team travels to Tavistock and will then travel to Elora Dec. 2 then to New Hamburg Dec. 3.
