

Down Blakelock seniors at home

Rebels claim hoop win

By DAN RALPH

The East Halton Senior boys basketball season has just begun, but already the Georgetown senior Rebels have equaled last year's output.

Last year the senior squad won one of its eight regular season games Friday at home, the Rebels defeated T.A. Blakelock 54-41 in their first game of the year. The Rebels led almost from the start, piling up a 20 point lead in the third quarter before the Blakelock team slowed the game down and began scoring points of its own. But strong defensive rebounding from forwards Dean Marks and Glen McCaughy allowed Georgetown to hold on at the end of the win.

Last year Phil Peden helped out coaching the junior boys team, but is the senior squad's coach this season. He said he was not sure just what to expect from his team.

"We had a good exhibition (four wins, three losses), and I knew we had good potential, but I didn't think we would be as good as we were," he said. "We wanted to run, and we were able to do what we wanted."

Marks and Paul Watts held the hot hands for the winners, each netting 15 points for the Rebels. McCaughy chipped in with 14 points also. Georgetown led 15-11 after the first period, and was ahead 36-19 at the half. The Blakelock comeback, Peden said, was a combination of circumstances.

"The guys were a little tired, and they had set up a zone defence. We play better against a man-top-man defence," he said.

A combination of last year's senior players and new blood from last year's junior squad has Peden happy with the outlook of his club's season.

"I can't say just how well we'll do," he said, "but this is a good start."

"Not only are my starters playing well, but we also have a strong bench, which is somewhat unusual," Peden added. The coach put that theory to practice in the Friday game, substituting freely throughout.

As for what he would like to see his team accomplish this season, Peden remains optimistic.

"Put me in the play-offs and I'll be satisfied," he said.

The team will have played in Milton yesterday.

Poppy's peewees net two hockey victories

Bill McDonald counted Georgetown's first and last markers on Flamboro ice November 27 to cement a nice win for Poppy's "AA" Major Peewees. McDonald counted the only goal in the first period from Chad Bailey and David Hodgson on a power play.

In the second stanza, Richard Bond finalized a great three way passing play from Dale McNiven and Rod Pasma to put Georgetown ahead 2-0. Flamboro came back with one goal to make it 2-1.

In the final frame Jim English's wrist shot to the high corner from Wes McCauley and David Watts gave Poppy's a 3-1 edge. Flamboro came back with their last goal on a power play but to no avail. Bill McDonald's second goal of the game was unassisted as he lucked the puck in the corner from behind the net to cement the 4-2 victory for Georgetown.

Hosting Dundas at Memorial Arena on November 29, Poppy's skated to a 5-3 win in a well played, action filled game. Dundas counted first before Jim English evened the score with a nice deflection to the top corner from David Watts and Mike McElroy.

Poppy's pulled ahead by one when Wes McCauley connected on a nice goal-mouth lateral pass from Bill McDonald. Again the Dundas blue came back to tie the game.

In the final period Wes McCauley counted again on a nice quick wrist shot from Chad Bailey and Mark Minich made it 4-2 for the locals on a nice backhand flip shot totally surprising the Dundas netminder. Goal number five was scored by Richard Bond from Bill McDonald. Dundas counted once more late in the period but time ran out on the clock to give Georgetown the 5-3 win.

Novice team loses

Georgetown Royal City Novice "A" rep team went down to defeat at the hands of Oakville 3-1 in a close checking game Saturday.

Strong offensive efforts by Joe Stephens, David Boere and Robbie Wands enabled the Georgetown team to get off to an early start when Tim Diardichuk scored the first goal of the game in the first period.

Outstanding goaltending by Sean Mills and agile defensive play by Tyson Hackett and Jim Katsilieris held off an aggressive Oakville team until the second period when they scored twice. Oakville was held off the scoresheet until the final frame. Georgetown pulled its goalie in an effort to close the gap in the last seconds of the game but failed to capitalize.

Curling team falls short in finals bid

The rink of Joan Shapcott, Marg Simpson, Joan Trimble and Eva Bradley were in Niagara Falls for a two-day spiel last week. Shirley McDermot's team had to cancel at the last minute. The team won their first two games, then lost their next two contests, falling one short of the finals.

After four rounds in the Men's Tuesday night competition, two teams are tied for first spot. Both Bob Fedosa and Folick Lamb are tied with 4-0 records.

In Ladies competition three teams are tied with 3-0 marks. The rinks are Donna Blight, Joan Trimble and Joan Shapcott.

Alice Frazer, June Russell, Mary Wards and Mary Kitley were at Dixie Wednesday for a one-day bonspiel. The team won a game and $40 in prize money.

The team of Shirley McDermot, Joan Shapcott, Lois Massey and Mary Black will be representing North Halton this week at the Ladies District playdowns in Mississauga. Good Luck and good curling.
