The Halton Hills Arts Council would like to take this opportunity to wish everyone a safe and happy holiday season.

Are you ready for the festivities? If you are I don't want to hear about it, I'm still at the list making stage. You know what that means.

I have myself deluded into thinking that all I now have to do is go out shopping once, pick up everything on my list and voila I'm finished.

Of course you know that when I do go out I'll find that one half of the items I intend to buy will be all sold out. The other half of them will only be available in the wrong sizes and colours. This will result in my usual Christmas panic.

It has become part of my Yuletide tradition. It wouldn't be Christmas without it.

I'm sure that there must be others, who spend the last few days before Christmas in a state of semi-hysteria. Unfortunately I am blessed with friends and acquaintances who have a tendency to make statements in the order of, "Thank heavens I've finished."

"Everything is wrapped and all my baking is done. Now I can relax and enjoy the fun." Usually they say this around Dec. 4. I haven't even started making lists then.

Readers of this column might remember that I always salute the season with a Christmas poem. Not wishing to break the tradition, but being rather pressed for time, I present you with a rerun from Christmas 1981:

'Tis the season to be jolly
Trim the tree and light the lights
Hang the mistletoe and holly
Trill the carols through the night
Sing of Frosty and of Santa
Think of friends far away
But don't forget the one we honor
Who was born on Christmas day.

hospital Dec. 12. The Christmas Ball was a success again this year. Everyone enjoyed a delicious meal and a nice profit was realized.

President Helen Zeravlev gave a report on the convention which was centered around continuing care in the hospital.

Praise for concert

Dear Sir,
Each year a tradition of the Christmas season is the annual concert at Centennial Public School. A tremendous amount of encouragement and preparation for any student, regardless of talent that is interested in participating, is undertaken by Mr. P. Brisley and Mrs. L. Barrager.

Someone to convene the Teenage Volunteers. Please think about it if you enjoy teenagers.

Congratulations to Past President V. Haines on receiving the Bicentennial Medal from the province of Ontario.

Christmas decorations are now everywhere in the hospital for patients as well as visitors to enjoy. Have you finished your Christmas shopping? If not, don't forget about the Gift Shop in the hospital.

There are many gifts in stock you might find for that special someone. Next meeting Jan. 9, 1985. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

Centennial Public School should be proud that they provided all the parents, relatives, friends and neighbors with the best concert ever!

Merry Christmas, On behalf of the audience
