

Christmas library programs

Are you wondering what to do with your children the week after Christmas? Why not plan a family trip to your local public library? On Thursday Dec. 27 bring your lunch and 'Munch to the Movies' from 12 until 1 p.m. The movies will be: The Mole and the Christmas Tree; The Ride; The Snowman; The Snowy Day; and The Christmas Gift.

If you prefer stories to movies, gather by the Library Christmas tree at 1:30 p.m. Children's Library staff members will be telling holiday tales, both new and traditional. No registration is required for either of these programs.

On Friday the Children's Library will be holding a New Year's Eve Party to welcome in 1985. Children must register in advance for this program.

For more information please call either the Acton Library at 853-0301 or the Georgetown at 877-2681.

Break and enter

A 18 year old Acton youth and four Halton Hills residents under 16 have been charged with break and enter after an alarm activation sent Halton regional police to Robert Little Public School in Acton.

News from Stewarttown

Herald Correspondent
STEWARTTOWN

The village and area was saddened to hear of the passing of Mrs. Gilbert English. Mrs. English lived in this area all her life and was a life member of St. John's. Sympathy is extended to the English family.

Christmas service at St. John's is at 8:30 p.m. Monday evening Dec. 24. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. A. Pugsley who recently celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary with their family and friends.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Andy Atkinson on the arrival of a son, Steven Joseph John. Mrs. Atkinson is the former Theresa Kitley. Both are from the Stewarttown area but now live near Terra Cotta. Steven is the first grandchild of Mrs. Mary Kitley and second grandchild of Helen and George Atkinson.

Winners place at zone level

Herald Special
The Royal Canadian Legion Branch 126 brought their first place winners to the zone finals of the Remembrance Day Poster and Prose Contest Dec. 13 and the group came back with five first place finishes. The first place winners will now proceed on to district judging in February.

SR: Poster - Michelle Green 1st. Poem - Allison Vale 1st. Essay - Robin Burroughs 1st.

INT: Poster - Beverley Keane 1st. Poem - Julie Holmes 2nd. Essay - Paul Kremer 2nd.

JR: Poster - Angela Fitzsimons 3rd. Poem - Melissa Boudrea 1st. Essay - Andrea Schneider 2nd.

The program is conducted under the auspices of the youth education committee, to create a better understanding of the Canadian Legion in our communities.

It provides an opportunity for the students to do some research and perhaps better acquaint themselves with the purposes of Remembrance Day, says Zone B chairman Norman Dick.

Stereo stolen

A stereo, two speakers and a CB radio with a combined estimated value of $1,050 were taken from a van which was parked on Armstrong Avenue, Dec. 13.

Thelma McEnery is served by library employee Susan Mentis who is working with the achievement group. The group ended the season with an egg nog celebration Friday.

Library board appointee

Former Halton Hills Public Libraries employee Anne Irvine of Limehouse was appointed Thursday night to the Halton Hills Public Library Board.

Halton board of education trustees approved the appointment at their meeting.

Mrs. Irvine is to serve for a three year term. The former programs and publicity coordinator for the libraries, Mrs. Irvine began working at the library 10 years ago, after a teaching career in home economics.

She resigned from the library in October to pursue a career in dress designing.

FRUIT FINGERS

1/2 cup honey
1/2 cup shortening
1 cup boiling water
2 cups raisins
2 tsp. cinnamon
1/2 tsp. nutmeg
1 tsp. salt
1 tsp. baking soda
2 tsp. water
2 cups flour
1 tsp. baking powder
1/2 cup walnuts
1/2 cup chopped glace cherries

Place the first 6 ingredients in a large saucepan and boil gently for 3 minutes; cool. Dissolve the salt and baking soda in the 2 tsp. water and add to the boiled mixture. Sift flour and baking powder three times and add to the boiled ingredients, mixing thoroughly. Pour half the batter into greased 12 x 8 x 2 cake pan; sprinkle with nuts and cherries; cover with remaining batter. Bake at 325° for 50-60 minutes. Cut into fingers when cool.
