What a way to finish
 What a better way to finish off for the Christmas break than with the men's annual turkey spiel which had an extra drumstick this year - ladies!!!
 First and foremost, thanks to the sponsors and bonspiel convenor Bill Blight for a successful day.
 Okay Graham Farnell, you did it again with the help of vice Rollie Bradley, second Bob Smith and lead Harold Fobert who won the trophy for the day.
 Second for the overall was the team of Al Dean, Doug Collison, Jack Massey and Ian Muir who was also first place in their draw.
 The two second place teams in the 9 a.m. and 11 a.m. draws were consequently Follick Lamb, Ken Irwin, Bob Wands and Don Cole who played the ladies. From myself, Joan Trimble, Joan Sanford and Eva Bradley we thank you GENTLEMEN.
 Second in the 11 a.m. draw was Glen Magnuson, Jim Connelly, Ken Tazman and Dennis Stewart.
 A special thanks guys should also go to Alice Frazier, Theresa Smith, June Russell and Mary Kitley who also filled in at the last minute.
 The ladies first draw concluded this week. First place for the Tuesday p.m. draw was June Russell, Clair Cole, Janet Dean and Karen Urbhart. Second was Donna Blight, Beth Anderson, Linda Veltman and Irene Soal.
 The Thursday p.m. honors went to Ellen Burns, Doreen Geofreda, Barb Abrey and Mary Gare. Second went to the three-man team of Agnes Park, Mary Wands and Edith MacPhail.
 Three junior teams are presently playing down and Ken McDermott, Bill Sanford and Kirk Massey will determine our club representatives for the junior district playdowns.
 May I take this opportunity to wish all my fellow curlers a safe and joyous holiday and all the best of the '85 season.
