William T. (Bill) Graham passed away at the La Pointe-Fisher Nursing Home in Guelph Dec. 3.

He is survived by his wife Carrie, son Gordon and wife Mary, three grandchildren and twin great granddaughters.

A longtime Norval resident, Mr. Graham was born and raised in the area. He farmed for many years where Braeside Farms now operates.

Following retirement, Mr. and Mrs. Graham moved to Georgetown's Market Street where they were active on the Georgetown Fair Board.

Life members of the Norval United Church where they were faithful churchgoers, Mr. Graham held most offices in the parish.

Following ill health, Mr. Graham became a patient in the La Pointe-Fisher Nursing Home.

The funeral service was held at the J.S. Jones and Son Funeral Home in Georgetown, with interment at Norval's Hillcrest Cemetery.

Talk about estates

NORVAL - Norval Women's Institute met at the home of Noreen Van Leeuwen last Thursday afternoon.

President Amy Burke opened the meeting with the Ode and Collect. Secretary Marguerite Hunter read the minutes.

Members were thanked by Gladys Chester for sending her a plant while she was convalescing.

Sign-ups took place for the June 18 bus trip to the Federated Women's Institute Convention in London.

Should housewives receive the pension? was the question asked at roll call. Yes, if they have paid into it, was the resolution.

Convener of resolutions Anne Wilson introduced the meeting's guest speaker Ray Bassett. Mr. Bassett is the vice-president of Trust Services Development for Victoria and Grey Trust Company. Manager of the Brampton branch Vernon Laxton accompanied Mr. Bassett.

Estate planning was discussed by the two who gave several timely tips.

They were thanked by President Burke who gave them each Lottario tickets.

Grace Crawford and Ethel Webb assisted the hostess in serving lunch.

New baby in Ballinafad

By WINIFRED SMITH

BALLINAFAD - This is back to school week for the students after the Christmas and New Years Holidays.

What a variety of weather we have had during the holiday time.

Work is progressing on the new addition to the church building. The congregation enjoyed the lively anthem by the young people's choir at the church service on Sunday.

There was a fair attendance for the first Sunday in the New Year. It was announced that Sunday Jan. 20 is the date set for the annual meeting.

Congratulations to Beverly and Earl McLean on the birth of a little daughter.

News from Stewarttown
