Bone graft needed

By KAY WILSON
Herald Correspondent
NORVAL - Jamie Patriquin of Norval who was hit by a car in front of the United Church last June is back at school since the last of October. Jamie is still wearing a brace on his leg, since the bone has not knit, however, he is going back to hospital Feb. 5 for a bone graft which the doctors hope will be successful.
Speaking with Jamie

he says he doesn't expect to jump off the CN Tower, but is just happy limping around.

All the pain and suffering was caused from a vicious dog which wasn't on a leash.
