

Ray Sinclair

Masonic Lodge Stewart was 82

Former Esquesing township resident, Lawrence Ray Sinclair, passed away in Geraldton District Hospital on Nov. 27, 1984 at the age of 82.

The eldest son of Gilbert and Jane Sinclair, he was born in Esquesing township, north of Georgetown, and attended the Stone School, Georgetown High School and Shaws Business College, Guelph. After learning the carpentry trade with his father and brothers Mr. Sinclair moved to Toronto and married Helen Evelyn Lillie on Jan. 24, 1930.

In the early thirties the couple moved to Geraldton where Mr. Sinclair became involved with diamond drilling and the exploration of local mine sites through employment with McLeod Cocksbutt Gold Mines. Mr. Sinclair was a member of the Kenogamis Masonic Lodge in Geraldton where he was grand steward for 1968-69 and served as Secretary of the Lodge for several years.

He was also a chartered member of the St. John's Ambulance in Geraldton, Longlac, Nakina, Arol and Branch Ontario Council, serving as treasurer for several years.

Mr. Sinclair served as elder and clerk of session for a number of years at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Geraldton

where he as a long time member.

Want to play make-believe? The Halton Hills Recreation and Parks Department is starting acting programs for youngsters seven to 14 years old Jan. 16.

children, runs from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. Courses are for eight weeks and cost $24.

Act now by registering at the recreation office on Georgetown's James Street or Acton's Mill Street, or by calling 877-5185, extension 260.

Instructor Jane Timleck will be introducing children seven to 10 years old to movement, music and mime through theatre games and activities. Improvisation will be used to create "make-believe" characters and situations.

For children 11 to 14 years old, Miss Timleck will help them explore expressing ideas through creative mime, skits, improvisation and movement.

The courses start Jan. 16 at Holy Cross Separate School in Georgetown. Act 1, which is the program for the seven to 10 year olds, runs from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. and Act 1 which is for the older
