3 babies baptized

By KAY WILSON
Herald Correspondent
NORVAL - Three babies were baptized at the morning service of Norval United Church Feb. 17 by Rev. Walter Ridley.

The babies were Alexander Jeffery Gunn, son of Susan and Alexander Gunn; Bradley Waite May, son of Debra and Douglas Kee; and Kristina Elizabeth, daughter of Kathryn and Thomas Weinhold.

Later the Kee and Weinhold families were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob May, grandparents of the babies.

Also attending were great grandparents Mrs. Arthur Oldum of Huttonville and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence May of Milton.

Several Laidlaw families and friends of RR2 Norval enjoyed a week's holiday to the Island of Margarita, which is located at the northern tip of South America.

They were Lloyd and Ella Laidlaw, Troy and Lenore Laidlaw, Ralph and Glenda Laidlaw, Catharine Laidlaw, Ted and Nancy Cordingly and Florence Moore of Brampton.

Fall Fair grants

It's time to apply for 1985 agricultural grants, and so the Georgetown Agricultural Society is asking for $1,575 from the region.

That's a five per cent increase over last year's $1,500.

The Acton Agricultural Society is asking for $1,500, a 4.6 per cent increase from the region.

The two societies are primarily responsible for the annual fairs in both communities.

Other farm related organizations in the region have also applied for the agricultural grants program. A total of $18,470 is being asked for, which are 4.4 per cent over the 1984 grants given.

Regional council had set a guideline of five per cent, and so the requests are within the guidelines for 1985.

Impaired drivers

Halton regional police charged two drivers with impaired driving after they arrived on the scene of a motor vehicle accident on Trafalgar Road, north of Highway 7, Feb. 17.
