

Wendys raise $230

Wendy's may have the beef, but they also have a heart.
During the last week of January Wendy's Restaurant held a potatothon where money was raised for the Big Brothers of Halton Hills.
A total of $230 was raised from the event and Feb. 2 a presentation was made to Big Brother's president George Wagner.

March Kidney month

Traditionally, March is kidney month, and this year will be no exception.
The month-long campaign objective is $3,000 and the Georgetown and District Chapter hopes to raise that through the efforts of their volunteer canvassers. Sue Luciani is this year heading the local campaign for the Kidney Foundation of Canada.

As the local chapter is still very new, anyone willing to help with door to door canvassing will be most welcome.
If you have a few evenings with some hours to spare call 877-7576.

Disarmament speaker

The CBC (Coffee, Books and Conversation) will meet as usual on Friday afternoons at the Georgetown Library. The CBC will be presenting speakers during March.
Janet Duval will be leading a discussion on March 1 on Nuclear Disarmament. This presentation will also include a film entitled, "If You Love This Planet".

Pastors come back to Acton

Want to see some former Acton pastors? Three of them are coming back to Acton to take part in the third annual Lenten luncheons organized by the Acton Clergy Association.
Running for four consecutive Wednesdays, the luncheons begin March 12 with Rev. Andrew King. Rev. King was the interim minister at Trinity United Church between Rev.

Chuck Beeton and Rev. Don Matheson. He is now serving at Malton United Church.
March 20, Rev. Leo Speagle will be the guest at the luncheon. A former minister with St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church, he was replaced by Father Ralph Diotallevi.
The minister at Acton Baptist Church before Rev. Jean Stairs, Rev.

Das Sydney, will be coming back to share his thoughts with Luncheon guests March 27. He is currently serving at Toronto's Yorkminster Park Baptist Church.
The fourth luncheon guest is Rev. Dr. Frank Morgan of Kitchener.
All luncheons feature soup and sandwiches and are free. However, a collection will be taken to defray the travelling costs of the speakers. Everyone's welcome. Luncheons run from 12 noon to 1 p.m. at the Acton Baptist Church on Mill Street.
