

McNally team halted

The Georgetown Fire-fighter-McNally Construction Atom AA's played Game Four and Five of their best-of-five game series with Milton winning Game Four but losing the all important fifth game which eliminated them from OMHA play-downs.

Game Four played here saw Georgetown come out on top 5-1. Ryan Pells opened the scoring for the home team early in the first on a pass from Greg Dobbin. Minutes later Kenny Kosziwka made a pass back to the blue line and Shawn Pearson blasted a hard shot to give Georgetown a two-goal lead. Kosziwka and Andy Elliott counted with second period goals on plays from Chris Barrow, Jake Mashinter and Dobbin. Milton came back with a third period goal and began to put the pressure on Georgetown but Dobbin broke out and sunk Georgetown's fifth goal taking the life out of the Milton squad. Georgetown goalie Marc St. Pierre was outstanding in net frustrating Milton at every turn.

The fifth game in Milton appeared to be Georgetown's again.

Elliott opened the scoring on a play from Dobbin and Barrow in the first and Kosziwka counted in the second from Dobbin to make it a 2-0 Georgetown game at the end of the second. The third period was Georgetown's downfall with Milton moving in and racking up five goals while holding Georgetown off the board. The final buzzer showed a 5-2 score for Milton, giving them the game and the best of the series.

"D" ladies win

The Georgetown Ladies "D" League team travelled to Bramalea to take on Regency and came away with a sweeping win.

Gloria Sinclair and Linda Yardley took 3-0 decisions while Diane Andrews and Pat Harris won their matches 3-1 as the club recorded a 4-0 win.

Locals take series
Georgetown took on Steeles West in Toronto and defeated their hosts 4-1 in the Ladies "C" League match.

Myra Britton and Linda Yardley won 3-0 while Jan Cook took a 1-1 decision and Gloria Sinclair won her game 3-2. Diane Andrews dropped a close 3-2 decision.

Men victorious

The Men's "D" League local team was in Mississauga to take on the Mississauga club and defeated their hosts 4-1. Brian Day won his match 3-0 while Ken Thorn and David Street recorded 3-1 wins. Murray Jans won his match 3-2 while Erwin Schandelmeyer lost a 3-2 decision.

Narrow defeat

Georgetown was defeated 3-2 in Men's "B" League play in their match with International Squash Club in Malton.

Lloyd Newman and Steven Eastwood won 3-2 while Alex Furness dropped a 3-1 decision. Boyd Hoddinott and Rod Presswood lost 3-0 games.

Coach wants another chance

By DAN RALPH
Herald Sports Editor
Tom Hower says he would like another shot at the White Oaks midge basketball team.

The Georgetown District High School midge coach made the comment after his team dropped a 48-38 decision to White Oaks Wednesday.

day at the Georgetown gym. Even though his team lost, Hower said he was expecting a lot more from his opponents.

"I'd like to see those guys again," he said. "I don't think they are as strong as everyone makes them out to be."

The visitors led pretty much from the beginning but the Rebels did manage to cut a 33-24 deficit down to a 35-32 score early in the fourth quarter. However, that is as close as the Rebels could get to a comeback win.

took 20 foul shots, and managed to connect on six. Also, the White Oaks full-court press left Georgetown pretty well hemmed up in their own end in the third quarter as the Rebels managed to score just four points.
"We need work on a press-break," Hower said. "As for the foul shooting, we practise that every practice. I guess we will work harder on it now," he said.

Lessons learned will help

By DAN RALPH
Herald Sports Editor
Lessons learned last week will come in handy today for the Georgetown District High School junior basketball team.

Georgetown defeated White Oaks last week 44-35 in an East Halton League game played at the Georgetown gym Wednesday. The same two teams will do battle in the first round of the playoffs today at the Georgetown gym.

The home team trailed 22-20 at the half and 31-30 heading into the final period of play. Rebels' coach Moe Leeking then changed his man-to-man defence and inserted a 1-3-1 zone that White Oaks never seemed to find an answer for.

When Georgetown climbed out to a six-point lead, ball control became the name of their strategy, and a number of White Oaks fouls sent Rebel players to the foul line for the win.

"I told the boys once we got up by six points I wanted them to freeze the ball and make them come out," Leeking said.

The game was the first time Georgetown had been on the court all week. The Rebels were to have played Milton last Tuesday, but inclement weather cancelled the game. The contest won't be played unless it is needed to decide the final outcome in the league standings for either club.

"We had no practice and showed the affects," Leeking said. "We got our composure back in the second half, but we played loose around the hoop in the first."

Lloyd Newman and Louis DePaoli shared the top scoring honors for the Rebels, each bucketing 11 points in the contest.
