

Jets edged out of playoff

North Halton Sports "AA" Novice team lost their second game on the Tri-County playoffs bowing to host Burlington 2-1.
 Erler had the goal, assisted by Brent Wilkinson as the locals ran into a red-hot Burlington goaltender.
 Wednesday evening the locals defeated Hamilton Huskies in an exhibition game at the GMHA International Bantam Tournament.
 North Halton Sports "AA" Jets were edged out of advancing to the finals of a Markham tournament by dropping a 2-1 decision to North Bay in their second game.

 Blaine McCauley had the goal while Mark Aldridge and David Kotsos assisted.
 Georgetown won its opener also 2-1 over Peterborough in overtime as McCauley and Kotsos scored. Kotsos, Darcy Boudreau, Doug Sheppard and Cory Evans assisted.

Roxy in semis

Georgetown Roxy "AA" Minor atoms have reached their divisional semi final round of the Timmy Tyke hockey tournament.
 The locals drew Wexford Raiders, a powerful squad from the Metro Toronto Hockey League "AAA" division. The speed of the Raiders and the larger ice surface at the North York Centennial Arena proved too much for the locals as they dropped a 9-0 decision.

Randy Bond and Steve Boyle played well with Bond being named the Roxy MVP.
 Facing elimination the locals met Hillcrest Summits. Coach Bob White had his team flying from the opening faceoff, but the locals were down 1-0 after the first 20 minutes even though most of the game was played in the Hillcrest zone.

 Strong forechecking finally paid off as Steve Melykuty scored the equalizer from Andy Jones eight minutes into the third.

to carry the play as Ryan Pirie, Mike Wilkinson, Troy Schirk and Andrew Marshall came close to breaking the tie. With just 20 seconds left Andy Jones emerged the hero as he scored the winner from Bond on a goal-mouth scramble. With his goal and an assist, Jones was the MVP. Andrew Ashenburt
