

Liftech atoms tournament's consolation champs

Representing Georgetown at the Huronia Invitational Tournament in Callagwood, March 15, 16 and 17, the Liftech "A" Major Atoms sailed home with the Atom Consolation Championship.

Fans were treated to scoreless hockey until midway through the third period in Game One against Stouffville. Four goals (one into an empty net) clinched the win for the opposition. Meeting Stoney Creek in Game Two, the first frame remained scoreless and the Creekers held a 1-0 edge after two periods. In a cliffhanging third stanza, Greg Dawson hit the match to fire the Georgetown squad up with his solo effort to tie the game. Less than a minute later Stoney Creek pulled ahead 2-1 only to have Stephen Leoni notch the equalizer from Steven Wright and Gord Buchan for a 2-2 score. With one minute remaining on the clock, a very determined Shaun Curry broke in alone to notch the game winner and advance Georgetown to the Consolation Championship.

The entire team turned in a fine effort against Peterborough for the final game resulting in an 8-4 triumph for Georgetown. Peterborough drew first blood 29 seconds into the game. Jeff Wright evened the count from Tommy Dlardichuk and Greg Dawson only to have the opposition go up 2-1 to close the first period. Liftech capitalized on penalty minutes to again even the count with a goal by Steven Wright from linemates Stephen Leoni and Gord Buchan. Jeff

Wright completed the scoring in the second frame earning himself a hat trick. Assists were credited to Ernie Pearce, Leoni and Steven Wright. Liftech then held a 4-2 lead going into the final stanza. Playing an aggressive style game Stephen Leoni scored two in a row for the locals, assisted by Dawson, Curry, and Ryan Schirk. Gord Buchan made it 7-2 for Georgetown from Steven Wright and Leoni.
