Legion ladies

By MARJORIE TUTTY
Herald Special

At our last General Meeting held on Thursday March 21 we were pleased to have Mr. W. Cumpsty, a career social worker prior to his retirement as a guest speaker. Introduced by president Liz McNeilly, his informative talk was on the Help and Information Centre, operating out of our Branch 120.

Explaining that the purpose of the Centre is to assist and advise veterans, servicemen and women, ex servicemen and women and their dependents on problems such as Old Age and Canada Pensions, Workers Compensation, Unemployment Insurance, passports, income tax and educational programs for retraining to name a few.

He also urged us as representatives of the Ladies Auxiliary to get involved in the community of Georgetown's many helpful and beneficial organizations, if at all possible. There will be an executive meeting on Tuesday April 9 at 7 p.m. April 11: The Ladies Auxiliary Spring Social, Mini Bingo and a Mini Auction are being planned for our enjoyment.

A luncheon will be served later in the evening. Mary Ann Roy is the convener for this event. April 12: Gemini Banquet, Marg Clarke, Banquet Convener. April 14: The Ladies Auxiliary Color Party has been invited to parade with the Branch's Color Party at the District Convention in Simcoe. The bus will leave the Branch at 10 a.m.

Museum empire 'isn't for Halton'

By ANI PEDERIAN
Herald Staff

Building a museum empire in the region shouldn't be Halton's goal, regional councillors stressed last week. Burlington Councillor Joan Little said the study into facilities for Halton Region Museum should be looking at what is the most reasonable and efficient way to operate the museum and not how to add museums to the regional system.

"I'm concerned about the region getting into the museum business on a grand scale," she told members of the administration and finance committee.

Councillors were approving the analysis to be undertaken in the six month, $20,000 study by a consultant this year.

They decided the study should look at upgrading the present museum facilities to comply with the provincial standards for community museums including required storage space; moving the museum from Milton to another location in the region that could be converted into a museum or suitable to build a museum; or upgrade the interiors of the present buildings to provincial standards and create a central storage area that all of Halton's museums can share, with operating costs split according to space used.

Looking at creating a satellite museum in Halton was dropped, as were creating a Halton-wide museum program managed by the Region Museum, and the creation of a new museum in Halton Hills. "I'm not so sure Halton Hills is ready for a satellite museum at the present time," Halton Hills Councillor Mike Armstrong said. "Halton Hills is big in geographic area and, frankly, to put a satellite museum in Glen Williams to serve the people in Acton seems asinine, because they're presently closer to the museum in Milton."

He said he preferred to leave things as they were and not make changes now.
