

Day of Champions

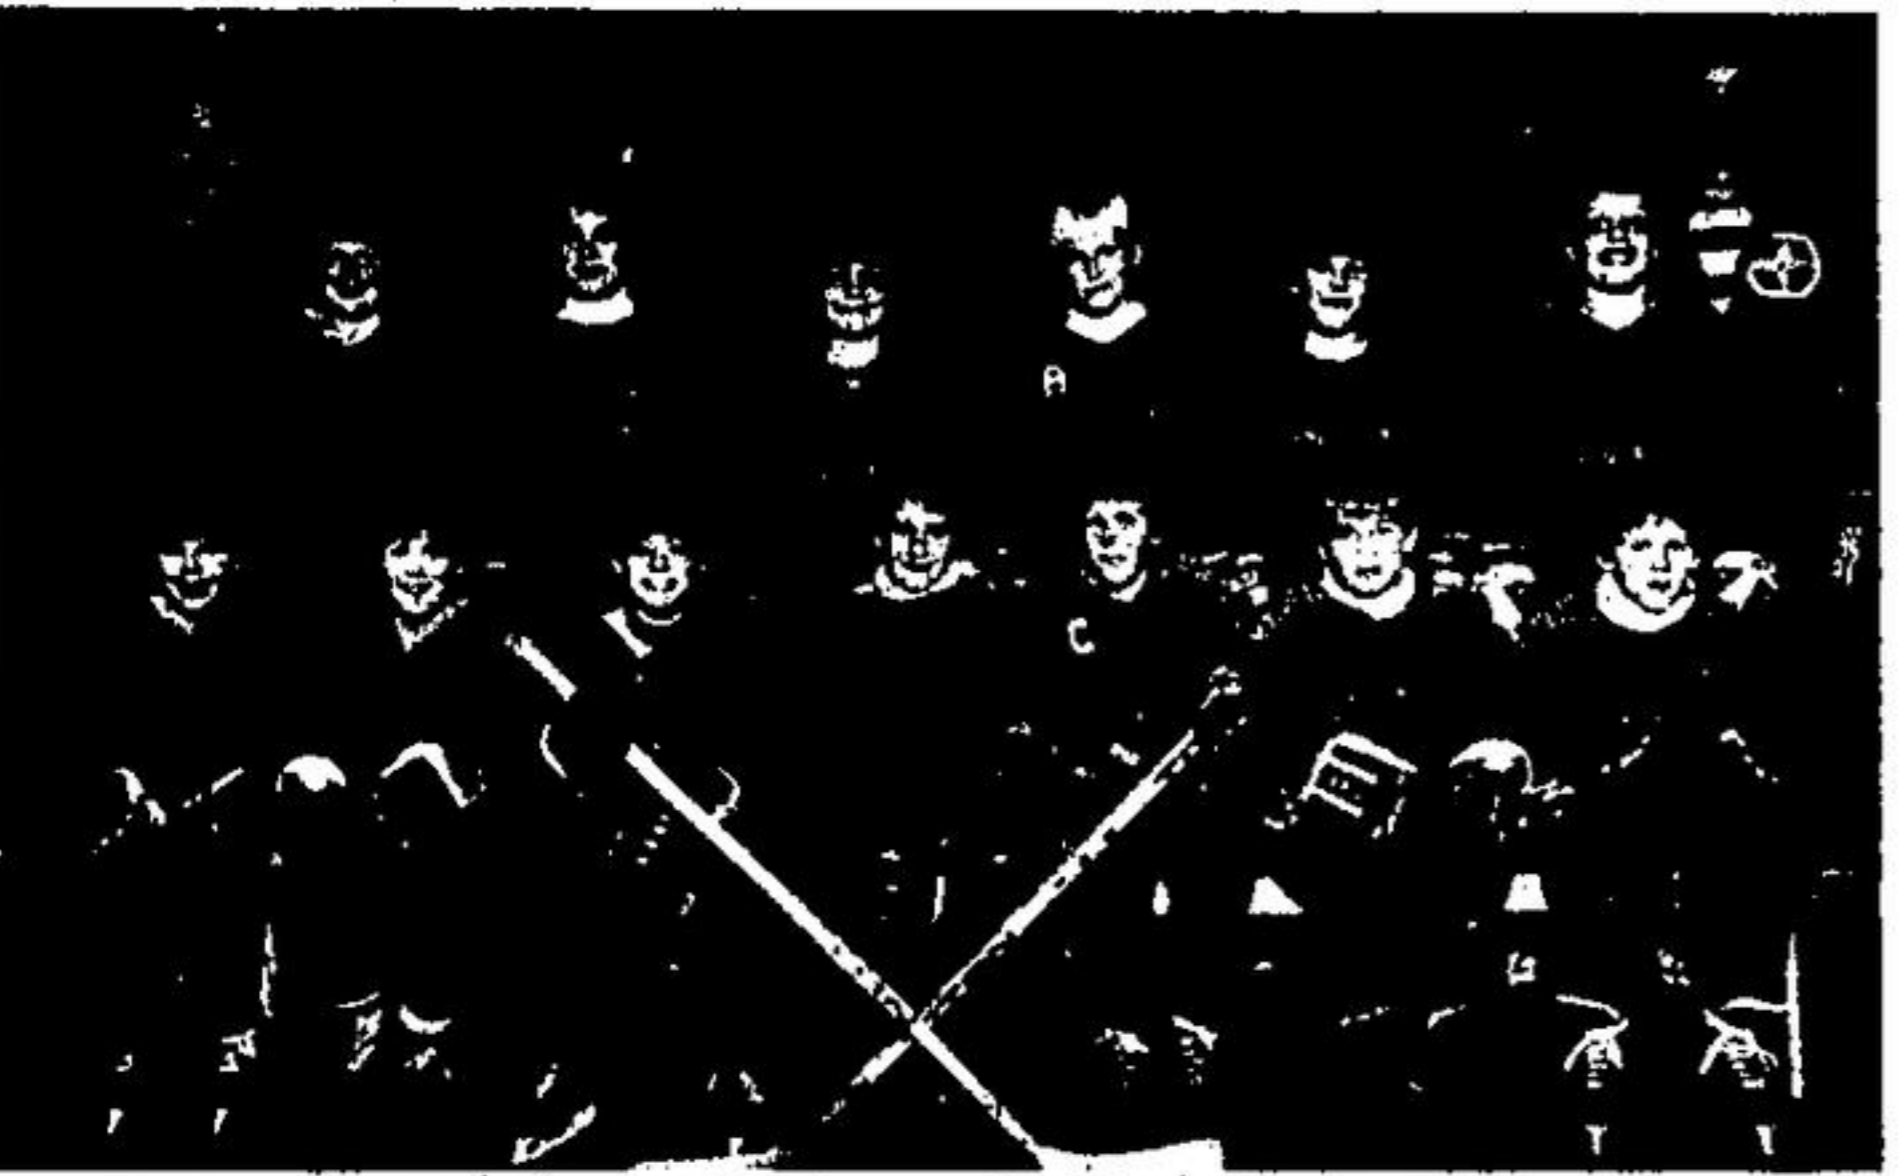

Thruway Muffler won the minor atom class. Members of the team from left to right (back row): Ross Walters, Jeremiah Fendley, Matt Deruchie, Doug Walters, Ryan Rolph, Steven

Trustum and Yvon Rivard. Front row: Ross Thompson, Ryan Teeter, Glen Henderson, Brian Loke, Duane Astrauskus, Glen Oomen and Joel Sletstra. Missing is Greg Cranston.

Members of the winning Baz Motors major peewee team from left (back row): Ron Atkinson (coach), Richard Sowers, Mark Atkinson, Craig Cooper and Doug Sowers (manager). Front row:

Jimmy Lawrence, Derek Woolgar, Andy Thibault, Craig Moore, Bruce Scarth, Brian Montgomery and John MacLeish.

Members of the winning London Life minor peewee team from left are: (back row) John Hunter (coach), Darren Gray, Trevor Smith, Jason Cunningham, Alex Bosma, Jason Fitzpatrick, John Cruise and Barry Mills (manager). Front: Stephen Burns, John Shawn, Paul Lalonde, Mike James, Kevin Tanas, Mike Mowat and Ken Cassista.

The house league tyke champions this year were the Montego Construction team. Members include: Ken Armstrong, Shane Thompson, Jason Curtis, Michael Crawford, Graham Mann, Nathan Milne, Stephen Gibbons, Timothy Baker and Gerry McNiven. Brian Markham is the manager, Richard Percival is the coach and Terry Smith the assistant.

Georgetown Rent-All captured top honors in the juvenile class. Members of the team are: Dennis Mackenzie, Mark Lindauer, Jim Hunsley, Dean Morgan, Dean Paul, John Barclay, Dave Huffman, Dan Gallagher, Rick Sedore, Tim Abray, Ron Vanitem, Thomas Gross, Doug Walters, Dave Collier and Larry Evans. Paul McCarthy is the coach.

House league teams end season

The Georgetown Minor Hockey Association (GMHA) house league teams decided their divisional champions, as well as naming their outstanding performers this weekend during the Day of Champions.

The event was held Saturday and Sunday at the Alcott Arena. With the exception of the Minor Peewee contest, no goal scorers were made available to The Herald.

Montego Construction was crowned the Tyke champions, and received the Norm and Doreen Long Trophy. Andrew Craig and Curtis Carr were named the Most Valuable and Most Improved players respectively in the division.

M and M Pro Sports took home the Trish and Terry Richmond Trophy for winning their class. Steve Onoprijenko was named the Most Valuable player while Brad Friend won the John Bew Memorial Trophy as Most Improved Player.

Thruway Muffler was the top team in the Minor Atom class, winning the A.E. LePage Trophy. Matt Deruchie was the Most Valuable Player winner while Julie Scarlett was the Most Improved Player. Glen Oomen won the Lady Byng Trophy while Grant Goodfellow and David Steer won the Rookie and Vezina awards respectively.

The Minor Peewee championship went to London Life as they defeated Rohde Shoes 5-0. John Cruise had three goals while Paul Lalonde had two. Lalonde had two assists while singles went to Cruise, Alex Bosma and Jason Fitzpatrick. Individual winners included Jay Keralake of Rohde Shoes as the Most Valuable Player, London Life's Fitzpatrick as Most Improved Player, Danny Fratick of Kentner's Catering as the Lady Byng winner, Rohde Shoes' Jean Dezaide as top rookie and Mike James of London Life the Vezina winner.

Baz Motors captured the Kinsmen trophy for winning the peewee division. Mark Lorito was the Most Valuable Player while Brad Thornton won the Most Improved Player honor. Sean Pederson was the Lady Byng winner while Brian Dougherty and Paul Smith won the Rookie and Vezina awards respectively.

Millere T.V. won the bantam title and took home the Police Association trophy. Dave Presswood was the division's Most Valuable Player while Ken Waycheako was the Most Improved Player. Alan Jonassen and John Wilson shared the Lady Byng trophy while Charlie Hancock was the top rookie. The Vezina award went to Napoleon Benito.

Bouwman's Truck Centre took home the Bud Hill Trophy in midget competition. Terry Flynn was voted the Most Valuable Player while Wes Samis won the Most Improved Player award. Rob Ballentine was the Lady Byng winner while Jamie Spiller took home the rookie award. Adam Djuk was named the Vezina winner.

Georgetown Rental was crowned winner in the juvenile class, taking home the North Hallon Sports Trophy. Shaun Coffey was named Most Valuable Player while Angus Snow was the Most Improved Player (Ken Morrow Memorial) award winner. Tim Abray was the Lady Byng winner while John Barclay and Doug Coverl won the rookie and Vezina awards respectively.

The Order of the Royal Purple senior girls hockey team finished off a good year by winning their league. Bill King is the manager while Rly Kennedy is the coach. Team members include: Elaine Taylor, Martie Dunning, Lauree Sears,

Dianne Taylor, Pam Anderson, Carolyn Grasby, Lisa Allen, Laura Fisher, Dena Vanderhout, Dale Wolfe, Ricky Richmond, Denean Jones, Sharon Anderson, Jodi Engelby, Pam Kent, Leah Benham, Chantal Soucie and Joan Osborne.

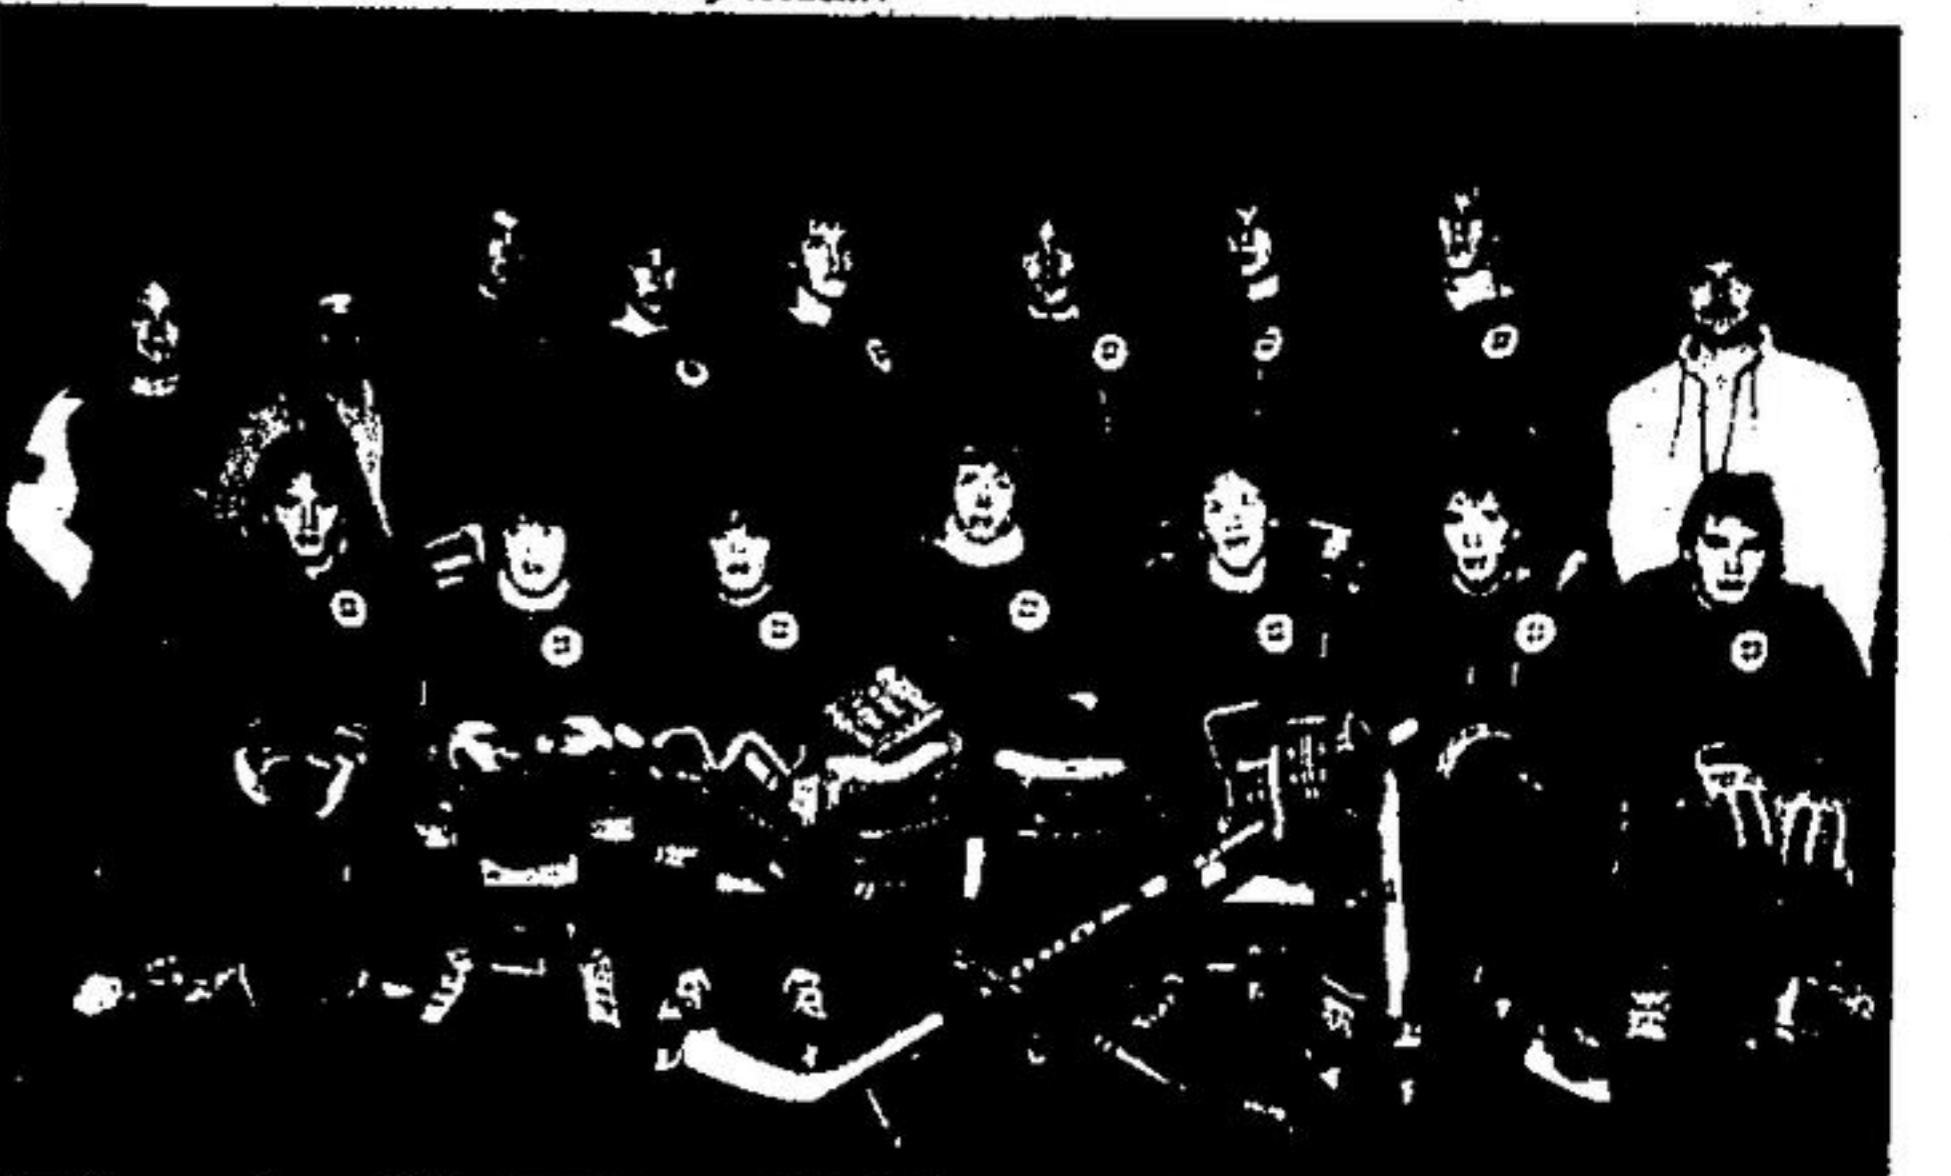

M and M Pro Sports won the Novice championship. Members of the team include: Spencer Stephenson, Brady Davies, Tara Toyne, Craig Blair, Todd Walker, Fraser Thom, Kevin Taylor and Andrew Neel. Missing were Stephen Onoprijenko, coach Jason Knight, assistant Rod Pasma and manager John Knight.

The chicken villa major atoms team consisted of: (back) Mike Dowd (manager), David Osborne, Brad Cuthbert, Tim Heinz, Jimmy Brunton, Tyler Brander and Bruce Juby (coach).

Front: Bill McNally, Mike Toyne, Paul Gogan, Tim Reid, Frank Burke, Dustin Thompson and Geoff Thompson.

Bouwman's Truck Service captured the midget championship. Team members include Dave Geneau, James Warnock, Bob French, James Parker, Neal White, Jeff McNiven, Steven

McCarthy, Paul Taylor, Terry Flynn, Mike Chivlitt, Jeff Davies, David Tale and Stephen Fletcher. Mario Spiteri is the manager while Paul Spiteri is the coach.

Members of the Millere T.V. team that won the bantam division of the Day of Champions were left to right (back row): David Gilkes, David Houston, Brett Robinson, Paul Howlett, Colla McMurray and manager Paul McDougall. Front row: Andrew French, Dean Sanvido, Mark Talbot, Jeff Gustini, Alan Jonassen, Glynn Pooke and David Inglis. Missing are coach Ken Flynn and trainer Jim Flynn.